Aerial Dogfight Matches Syrian, Israeli Planes

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli and Syrian warplanes battled today, and the Israeli military command said its pilots shot down one Syrian MIG21 jet.

A Lebanese military source reported two Syrian MIG jets downed over the Lebanese mountains northeast of Beirut. An English schoolmaster said he witnessed the downing of one of the planes.

The Israelis said the dogfight occurred about 1 p.m. when Syrian planes attempted to intercept Israeli planes on patrol. The Israelis said all their planes returned safely.

It was the first Israeli-Syrian air battle since Nov. 21, when the Israelis claimed they downed six Syrian MIG21s.

The Lebanese source said 25 to 27 Israeli planes were sighted on Lebanese radar screens.

"We were nearly blown out of our seats by a series of explosions," said the Rev. Ronald Roberts, who runs a school for handicapped children in the Lebanese town of Ajloun, on the road to the ski resort of Faraya.

"We rushed out and saw one plane trailing black smoke heading toward the ground. There were three other planes that looked as though they were heading to Syria."

The Syrian-Israeli cease-fire line has been at flashpoint since Nov. 21, when the heaviest fighting in more than two years erupted.

Arab guerrillas slipped into Israeli-held territory from Syria on three occasions at Christmas time, the Israelis claimed, and Israel retaliated with an air raid on Syria last Wednesday.

The Syrians responded with an artillery attack on Israeli positions and settlements on the Golan Heights Saturday. The Israelis came back with a night air raid on a Syrian army camp near Damascus.

Nixon Is Locked Out Of Oval Office On Holiday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, a surprise visitor to the White House on New Year's Day, is said to have found himself locked out of his own Oval Office Monday morning.

Nixon, once expected to spend the entire holiday weekend at Camp David, Md., apparently upset security duty rosters—and other things—by returning from his mountaintop lodge Sunday night.

Although there is evidence that a few aides anticipated the quick return from Camp David, one White House official reported that when Nixon appeared at his Oval Office at 7:30 a.m. on New Year's Day he discovered, after futile wrestling with the doorknob, that routine security precautions were keeping him out of his own inner sanctum.

By all accounts, it did not take Nixon long to find a White House policeman—a uniformed member of the Executive Protection Service—who came up with a passkey.

The chief executive, who seems more apt to alter apparent plans the longer he remains in office—a point noted with some of his predecessors—gave no explanation for his helicopter return to the White House on one of the nation's traditional live-it-up holiday evenings.

True, Mrs. Nixon had left earlier in the day for Southern California to take part in Pasadena's Rose Bowl festivities where her old school, the University of Southern California, defeated Ohio State University's football team.

North Viet Air Raids Resume; Talks Set

SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes resumed attacks on North Vietnam's southern panhandle below the 20th parallel today after a 36-hour halt for New Year's, the U.S. Command announced.

The bombing halt above the 20th parallel, which includes Hanoi and Haiphong, remained in effect. It was ordered by President Nixon on Saturday in preparation for the resumption of secret peace negotiations in Paris next Monday.

A communique said air operations over North Vietnam resumed at 1 p.m. It gave no details, but U.S. officials said the bombers were attacking supply routes below the 20th parallel to slow the annual dry-season push of war materiel across the demilitarized zone and through Laos into South Vietnam.

The U.S. Command also reported that bombing operations were resumed in South Vietnam at dusk Monday after a 24-hour holiday halt.

The pattern was the same during the Christmas ceasefire, and again there was no explanation why the halt in North Vietnam lasted 12 hours longer.

The Command said that, from dusk Monday until dawn today, U.S. planes made 44 strikes in South Vietnam, all but two of them in the northern quarter of the country below the DMZ.

During the bombing cessation in South and North Vietnam, U.S. Air attacks shifted to the Ho Chi Minh Trail in eastern Laos, Hanoi's main supply route southward, and to supply lines and base camps in Cambodia, the Command said.

U.S. planes also flew missions in support of Laotian forces battling North Vietnamese troops in the Plain of Jars, in northeast Laos, the communique said.

Radio Hanoi claimed that a U.S. RA5C reconnaissance plane was shot down Sunday in Quang Binh, North Vietnam's southernmost province. It did not mention the fate of the crew. The U.S. Command said it had no plane losses to report.

The South Vietnamese command reported generally light battlefield activity but one major fight about 40 miles northeast of Saigon this morning. A militia unit ran into about 100 enemy troops, and fighting was reported continuing at midafternoon.

First reports said at least two militiamen were killed, but there was no report yet of enemy losses.

Nhan Dan, North Vietnam's official newspaper, said in a New Year's editorial that the Communist side recorded two basic victories during the past year, "defeating the U.S. 'Vietnamization of the war' policy and foiling the U.S. plan to re-Americanize the war" with a massive infusion of U.S. air and naval power.

Pre-Session Battle Seen Among House Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats gearing up for renewed battles with President Nixon face divisive struggles of their own town as they meet to organize for the 93rd Congress opening Wednesday.

An effort to formulate a party position on the best means of bringing the Vietnam war to an end is the major problem to be resolved at a pre-session caucus of all House Democrats.

New attacks on the seniority system and other proposed rules changes are also on the agenda, but may be put off until a later meeting.

The Democrats will elect their leaders for the new Congress, but Speaker Carl Albert faces only token opposition and Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill of Massachusetts is unchallenged for majority leader.

A hot fight is developing, however, over a proposal to make the third job in the party hierarchy—that of Democratic whip—elective rather than appointive, as it is now. If the move succeeds, a wide-open battle for the job is in prospect.

House Republicans, with fewer problems, will hold their organizing meeting Wednesday morning before the noon opening of Congress. So will Senate Republicans, who have two leadership positions to fill.

Sens. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire and Wallace F. Bennett of Utah are vying for the chairmanship of the Senate Republican Conference. John G. Tower of Texas and Robert Taft Jr. of Ohio are seeking the chairmanship of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

The abrupt halt in the bombing of North Vietnam ordered over the weekend by Nixon may have undercut plans by many House Democrats to seek adoption of a strong antiwar resolution by the caucus at today's caucus.

The bombing-halt order came after a group of about 60 Democrats had agreed to support a resolution stating that it would be Democratic party policy to seek an immediate end both to the bombing and the war by having Congress cut off all funds for U.S. military operations in Indochina.

Whatever the caucus does will have no legislative effect, however, and the real antiwar drive in Congress will start with the opening of the 93rd session Wednesday. Dozens of bills calling for a variety of actions, including cutting off war funds, are ready to be introduced.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, jumping the gun, scheduled a meeting for this afternoon and invited Secretary of State William P. Rogers and presidential adviser Henry Kissinger to brief it on the war.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee has extended a similar invitation to Rogers and Kissinger for later in the week, and a subcommittee headed by Rep. Ben Rosenthal, D-N.Y., will start hearings Thursday on effects of the Vietnam bombing policy on U.S. diplomacy in Europe.

3 Nations Join Common Market

BRUSSELS (AP) — Nine flags flew outside the headquarters of the European Common Market today after Britain, Ireland and Denmark joined the world's richest trading bloc.

There was little fanfare to mark the enlargement of the European Economic Community on New Year's Day.

Prime Minister Edward Heath called Britain's entry into the EEC a "tremendous opportunity" and predicted that enthusiasm over membership would increase as the advantages became clearer.

Queen Margrethe told her Danes of great expectations but warned that membership would make great demands on them. The conservative Danish newspaper Jyllands-Posten cautioned: "What we will see is a gradual process of change and adaptation which many will feel murderously slow."

The Irish government issued a special stamp, and Prime Minister Jack Lynch declared:

"It is my belief that many of the economic and social differences which exist between North and South Ireland will rapidly disappear when we have fully adapted to Community membership."

Weather

Sunny and warmer today, high near 40. Increasing cloudiness and continued warm tonight and tomorrow, low near 30, high near 45. High Sunday 62; low, 50. High Monday, 41; low, 29.

In the immediate future, Danish and Irish farmers stand to gain from high food prices. Britain, with only a small farm population, is seeking new opportunities for its industry that could increase production and jobs.

POWs Issue Peace Call

TOKYO (AP) — North Vietnam said today that 30 American prisoners of war, including 20 crewmen from B52 bombers downed recently, have issued a joint statement urging the U.S. Congress to try to help end the Vietnam war.

The official Vietnam News Agency broadcast the text of the statement and the names of the 30 POWs. Hanoi had reported the capture of all them previously.

The statement recalled the remark made in late October by Henry Kissinger, President Nixon's chief adviser for national security, that "peace is at hand" in Vietnam.

"We strongly appeal to the members of Congress to exercise all your legal and moral power to bring about peace."

"This statement is made by those who know that more delay can only increase the suffering, lengthen our confinement and aggravate the wellbeing of the country which we serve."

given up some of their independence.

The basic arrangement is that of a customs union. All members let in each other's goods without duty and charge the same import taxes on goods from outside the trading bloc.

On Monday, Ewen Fergusson, a senior official of the British Mission to the EEC, delivered two letters dealing with routine protocol to the Executive Commission. They were Britain's first official acts as a Common Market member.

The first significant event of Britain's membership will be next weekend's meetings of the new 13-member Executive Commission. It will include two British members: Sir Christopher Soames, former ambassador to Paris, and George Thomson, who negotiated unsuccessfully for British membership in the EEC during the last Labor government.

Communists Capture Laos Road Junction

VIENTIANE (AP) — Communist forces have captured the strategic road junction of Sala Phoukhoun, 105 miles north of Vientiane, government military sources reported today.

The attack, began late last week, was coordinated with smaller attacks on Muong Kassy, 17 miles southwest of Sala Phoukhoun, and an ambush on a relieving convoy just southeast of Muong Kassy.

ROUNDTOWN

VANESSA Lynne Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills, Route 4, is the winner of the South Central District Elks Youth Leadership Contest it was announced today by John Fissell, chairman of the Circleville BPOE youth activities committee.

Vanessa will receive a $50 savings bond from the district and is now eligible for the state contest. Winners of the state contest will be announced May 6 during the Elks State Convention.

A student at Logan Elm High School, Vanessa was the winner of the local lodge's leadership contest, girl's division. John Day won the boy's division on the local level. On the district level, the boy's winner was Gary Robert Moffett, Marysville.

Two years ago, Circleville also had a district winner in Mary Beth Rhoads, who went on to place second in the state contest.

THE first baby of 1973 was a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Smith, Route 2, Ashville, at 3:01 p.m. New Year's Day.

PICKAWAY County Commissioners will reorganize next week. In past years the county legislators reorganized the first Monday of January, but due to a change in the terms of commissioners, it was changed to the second Monday. L. Robert Liston, who has been attending meetings since his election in November, sat in his official capacity today. He replaces Charles Morris. Dick T. Tootle is the present chairman of the board while Wayne Hines is the "dean" of the commissioners in years of service.

110th General Assembly Opens Session

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 110th General Assembly, opening-day formalities out of the way, moved into a working session today with one Senator holding his seat on a conditional basis.

With families and friends packing the galleries, the 99 House members and 33 senators took their oaths Monday. There are 35 new faces in the House, 10 in the Senate.

One senator, Democrat Gene Slagle of Galion, was seated conditionally until the Senate receives a report from the Ohio Supreme Court and decides if it should seat him permanently.

Veteran Sen. Robin Turner of Marion, claiming election irregularities in six of the eight counties involved in the 26th district, is challenging Slagle's election.

Under the statute which Turner filed his protest, the Supreme Court gathers evidence and then turns it over to the Senate itself for the final decision. Slagle defeated Turner by 155 votes Nov. 7.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray, R-3 Columbus, offered the resolution that permitted Slagle to be seated. He said the Supreme Court had informed him it wasn't through with its investigation.

With Slagle seated, Republicans hold a 17-16 edge in the Senate. Democrats took over the House for the first time since 1959, holding a 58-41 margin.

Rep. A. G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, beginning his 14th term, took over the speaker's gavel from Rep. Charles F. Kurfess, R-83, Bowling Green, who became minority leader.

Other leaders in both parties, who already had been named in party caucuses, were formally put into office by unanimous votes in both houses.

Rep. Vernal G. Riffe Jr., D-89 New Boston, the new House speaker pro tem, introduced a bill to pave the way for a $300 million Vietnam War veterans bonus.

It would put the matter before the voters in November in the form of a constitutional amendment. The top bonus would be limited to $500, with $10 allowed for each month service in the armed forces and $15 allowed for each month of that service overseas between Dec. 1, 1961 and July 1, 1973.

Similar to previous unsuccessful attempts to provide such a bonus, the legislation would transfer some $8.7 million left in the Korean War Bonus Fund to a Vietnam bonus fund.

The bonuses would be financed by bonds, which in turn would be retired by an increase in property taxes.

A bill introduced into the House would correct errors in legislation passed by the 109th General Assembly. Routine in nature, it is always labeled "House Bill 1."

Another bill offered in the House would permit persons not working because of labor dispute elsewhere to draw unemployment compensation. It's prime sponsor was Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D-51 Youngstown.

Members of the legislature took their oath of offices from either Chief Justice C. William O'Neill or Justices Frank D. Celebrezze or Thomas Herbert.

Included in one of the groups O'Neill gave the oath to was his son, also C. William O'Neill, a new member of the House.

O'Neill recalled that when he took the same oath 34 years ago his son was crying in the gallery and had to be taken from the chambers.

A reporter, he noted, recalled in print that it was the only interesting thing that happened that day. O'Neill was later speaker of the House, attorney general and governor before going onto the court.

Lancione, in taking control of the House, pledged to make the legislature "the proud equal branch of government." He said it now was drained of both power and respect.

"In Ohio, I do not intend for this to happen, with your help," he said. "This legislature, God willing, will exercise its responsibilities and assume its role under the Constitution of Ohio."

Lancione suggested the legislature consider laws that would restore the faith in government and open government to the people "and act as a watchdog of people's taxes."

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices spurted ahead in the first half-hour's trading today, then continued higher at a more restrained pace.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was up 12.19 to 1032.21. Over 10 points of this gain came during the first halfhour of the session.

Advances topped declines on the New York Stock Exchange by nearly 5 to 1.

"The market is responding to the news that high-level peace talks are to be resumed next week in Paris," said Newton Zinder, analyst with E.F. Hutton Co. Inc.

Blue-chips were active and strong, as American Telephone tacked on 5/8 to 53 3/4 and General Electric rose 1 7/8 to 74 3/4.

On the American Stock Exchange, Champion Home Builders was active and up 5/8 to 14 3/4.

The Big Board index at noon was 65.05, up 0.57, while the American Stock Exchange price-change index stood at 26.53, up 0.17.

Holiday Accidents Injure Eleven

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated 12 New Year holiday traffic accidents and set a record that is hoped will never be matched as they handled 119 accidents in the month of December.

Holiday accidents ranged from a gas tank explosion to a car completely ripped in half after a telephone pole collision. There was only one injury requiring more than hospital emergency care, although 11 persons were hurt.

The most serious accident occurred 3:14 p.m. Monday on Route 23 at DuPont Rd. when a car driven by Carolyn S. Dunn, 24, Columbus, caught on fire and exploded injuring five of seven passengers, one seriously.

Deputy Jim Deal, who termed the accident a flash fire and explosion, said the car's muffler overheated, igniting the gas tank.

Edward Dunn, 28, Columbus, was transferred from Berger Hospital to Columbus' Mercy Hospital for treatment of severe facial burns and burned hands. He also lost all his hair.

Mrs. Dunn was treated for first and second degree burns to her right side. Janet Yantis, 34, Columbus, was treated for burns to her face and hair, and Debbie Yantis, 15, and Angel Yantis, 14, were treated for burns to their arms and faces.

Pickaway Twp. firemen extinguished the blaze.

The first holiday accident occurred 5:15 p.m. Saturday when Lloyd Barnhart, 32, Route 1, Kingston, lost control of his car and hit a parked vehicle on Route 159 in Kingston. He was not injured, but Deputy J. Phillip Brown charged him with driving while intoxicated and reckless operation.

Buddy Deem, 32, Route 3, Circleville, suffered bruised legs when he was pinned between two cars at the Certified Station 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Deputies said Deem was putting gasoline into a car owned by Frances Heslop, 45, Route 3, when a car driven by Steven Weaver, 17, Chillicothe, pinned him to the Heslop auto.

Katheryn Shepard, 58, Columbus, a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Charles Shepard, 60, Columbus, was treated for right hip injuries after Shepard failed to negotiate a curve at Route 62 and the Mt. Sterling Commercial Point Rd. and drove over an embankment.

The car sustained undercarriage damage.

Deputy Bill Dountz charged Ronald White, 23, Route 1, Orient, with reckless operation and leaving the scene of an accident following a crunching wreck 7:45 p.m. Saturday on the Circleville-London-Northern Rd.

The report states that White was southbound on the road when he crashed into a concrete bridge abutment, knocking the concrete 10 feet down a hill.

White allegedly drove his car an additional 972 feet, although the front end was demolished and the front wheel was completely buckled under the car. Deputy Dountz found him two hours later in his home.

Sandra L. Allen, 18, 332 Long St., Ashville, complained of right arm pains and lacerations to both legs, after she lost control of her car 9:25 a.m. Sunday, hit a pole, and split the car into two sections.

Deputy Bob Hoover said she was driving on Route 316 near the Darbyville-Columbus Road intersection, when she apparently thought another car was going to pull out in front of her.

The car destroyed seven guard rail posts and 70 feet of rail before crashing into an electric pole and breaking it off. After impact, the car separated into two sections at the fire walls.

Roni Keiser, 16, Route 2, Circleville, suffered only a bump on the head after a single car accident 10:20 p.m. Sunday. Deputies said Keiser was northbound on the Circleville-Westfall Rd. when blinded by an oncoming car. Keiser's car left the road and dropped into the canal, submerging all but about a foot of the vehicle.

Reggie Radcliff and Doug Radabaugh are credited with helping Keiser from the car.

John S. Riddle, 18, Route 2, Orient, was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital for treatment of a lacerated lower lip and jaw and dislocated teeth after a one car accident 2:30 a.m. Monday on Route 62 near Tenny Rd.

Deputy Earl Kuhn said he drove off the right side of the road after falling asleep, crashed over the top of a culvert and drove into a telephone pole, breaking it off.

Vern Benroth, 58, Route 2, was charged with failing to maintain

Man Slain In Escape

HOUSTON (AP) — A man convicted in a rape-murder case was fatally wounded Saturday night as he tried to stab a sheriff's deputy in an escape attempt from the Harris County Jail, police said.

Two other prisoners involved in the escape attempt were caught shortly afterwards, one in the parking lot of the county courthouse and the other about 45 minutes later as he attempted to hide in nearby Buffalo Bayou.

Harry Lanham, 25, serving a 25-year sentence for rape and murder, was shot once in the chest by a deputy and died on the operating room table at Ben Taub Hospital an hour after the escape attempt.

Lanham was convicted Oct. 21 in the brutal shotgun murder of Linda Faye Sutherland, 21, a Houston girl raped and killed in nearby Brazoria County. Lanham was also being held for trial in another rape-murder.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices spurted ahead in the first half-hour's trading today, then continued higher at a more restrained pace.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was up 12.19 to 1032.21. Over 10 points of this gain came during the first halfhour of the session.

Advances topped declines on the New York Stock Exchange by nearly 5 to 1.

"The market is responding to the news that high-level peace talks are to be resumed next week in Paris," said Newton Zinder, analyst with E.F. Hutton Co. Inc.

Blue-chips were active and strong, as American Telephone tacked on 5/8 to 53 3/4 and General Electric rose 1 1/8 to 74 3/4.

On the American Stock Exchange, Champion Home Builders was active and up 5/8 to 14 3/4.

The Big Board index at noon was 65.05, up 0.57, while the American Stock Exchange price-change index stood at 26.53, up 0.17.

Mrs. Dunn was treated for first and second degree burns to her right side. Janet Yantis, 34, Columbus, was treated for burns to her face and hair, and Debbie Yantis, 15, and Angel Yantis, 14, were treated for burns to their arms and faces.

Pickaway Twp. firemen extinguished the blaze.

The first holiday accident occurred 5:15 p.m. Saturday when Lloyd Barnhart, 32, Route 1, Kingston, lost control of his car and hit a parked vehicle on Route 159 in Kingston. He was not injured, but Deputy J. Phillip Brown charged him with driving while intoxicated and reckless operation.

Buddy Deem, 32, Route 3, Circleville, suffered bruised legs when he was pinned between two cars at the Certified Station 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Deputies said Deem was putting gasoline into a car owned by Frances Heslop, 45, Route 3, when a car driven by Steven Weaver, 17, Chillicothe, pinned him to the Heslop auto.

Kathryn Shepard, 58, Columbus, a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Charles Shepard, 60, Columbus, was treated for right hip injuries after Shepard failed to negotiate a curve at Route 62 and the Mt. Sterling Commercial Point Rd. and drove over an embankment.

The car sustained undercarriage damage.

Deputy Bill Dountz charged Ronald White, 23, Route 1, Orient, with reckless operation and leaving the scene of an accident following a crunching wreck 7:45 p.m. Saturday on the Circleville-London-Northern Rd.

The report states that White was southbound on the road when he crashed into a concrete bridge abutment, knocking the concrete 10 feet down a hill.

White allegedly drove his car an additional 972 feet, although the front end was demolished and the front wheel was completely buckled under the car. Deputy Dountz found him two hours later in his home.

Sandra L. Allen, 18, 332 Long St., Ashville, complained of right arm pains and lacerations to both legs, after she lost control of her car 9:25 a.m. Sunday, hit a pole, and split the car into two sections.

Deputy Bob Hoover said she was driving on Route 316 near the Darbyville-Columbus Road intersection, when she apparently thought another car was going to pull out in front of her.

The car destroyed seven guard rail posts and 70 feet of rail before crashing into an electric pole and breaking it off. After impact, the car separated into two sections at the fire walls.

Roni Keiser, 16, Route 2, Circleville, suffered only a bump on the head after a single car accident 10:20 p.m. Sunday. Deputies said Keiser was northbound on the Circleville-Westfall Rd. when blinded by an oncoming car. Keiser's car left the road and dropped into the canal, submerging all

Reggie Radcliff and Doug Radabaugh are credited with helping Keiser from the car.

John S. Riddle, 18, Route 2, Orient, was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital for treatment of a lacerated lower lip and jaw and dislocated teeth after a one car accident 2:30 a.m. Monday on Route 62 near Tenny Rd.

Deputy Earl Kuhn said he drove off the right side of the road after falling asleep, crashed over the top of a culvert and drove into a telephone pole, breaking it off.

Vern Benroth, 58, Route 2, was charged with failing to maintain assured clear distance ahead by Deputy Warren Straley after he ran into the rear of a car driven by James Cottrell, 62, Route 2, on Route 22 near the Scioto River bridge 12:08 p.m. Monday. No one was injured.

Ricky D. Norris, 20, 445 Stella Ave., driving an ambulance for Mader Funeral Home, was treated for whiplash injuries at Berger Hospital after he backed the ambulance into a tree on the John Blackbourne property 10:20 p.m. Monday.

Deputy Don Thompson said Norris was attempting to back the ambulance into the driveway when he drove off the left side into the tree.

Question Sister's Child-Rearing

DEAR ABBY: I am concerned about the relationship between my sister and her 8-year-old son. To be frank, I wonder if it could cause homosexual tendencies in the boy.

Although she dresses him in male clothing, she selects such babyish styles-minus zippers. His favorite pastime is "playing house." And he doesn't appear to be at ease with boys.

There seems to be an unusual physical attraction between the mother and son. He is not allowed to use the men's restrooms. She always takes him into the ladies' restrooms. He doesn't seem to be embarrassed by it either.

My sister is an intelligent, educated person. And her husband is no dummy. I cannot understand why he doesn't put his foot down.

Is it normal for the boy to accept his mother's way of training him without protesting?

We don't feel that we can discuss this with her, but she is an avid reader of your column, so perhaps she will see this and recognize herself, and do something about a potential problem.

DEAR CONCERNED: Your sister's behavior toward her son is not normal, but his responses are indeed what one could expect. Yes, she could be sowing the seeds of homo-sexuality. Don't wait for her to "recognize" herself. TELL her what is obvious to you and others.

DEAR ABBY: What is it that when people are trying to watch their calories, their friends say: "Oh, come on . . . have a piece of candy, or another helping. It can't hurt you."

I always end up eating it just to shut them up to get on with the bridge game or what ever the case may be.

When I quit smoking, I didn't have people telling me that one cigaret wouldn't hurt me. And if a person has joined A.A., nobody would tell him that one little drink wouldn't hurt him.

People who are dieting should be given the same help as those who have given up smoking or alcohol. After all, a weight problem is harmful to one's health, too.

ON A DIET

DEAR ON: I agree. Dieters need all the help they can get, but don't blame those who tempt you if you can't resist temptation.

DEAR ABBY: We are having trouble with some friends we have known a long time.

As our invited guests they feel free to change the dates of their visits with no regard to our planning.

They have even failed to tell us they were not coming until the day they were expected. The last time they did this we had borrowed beds and bought food for their weekend visit. We had also invited others in for a party.

There never seems to be a reason, such as an emergency that keeps them from following through on a planned trip. They just call at the last minute and cancel.

How would you handle friends like these?

PITTSBURGERS

DEAR PITTSBURGERS: If you invite these "friends" to be guests again, you deserve what you get.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NO LEFTOVERS": Why didn't you come right out and ask for some of the leftover turkey? Since you brought the bird to the family dinner you were entitled to take some of the left-overs home with you. You need more "back-bone" and less "wishbone"!

Hitler's Parade Limousine Heads List At Auto Auction

AUBURN, Ind. (AP) — Auto auctioneer Dean V. Kruse keeps having this dream: lights and a crowd and he slaps the clamshell fender of a 22-year-old used car and chants:

"Going once, going twice, and sold to the gentleman with the diamond stickpin for $100,000."

He knows it's a dream, but he also knows it could come true.

Kruse and his three auctioneer brothers will offer Adolf Hitler's parade car to the highest bidder Jan. 6 at Scottsdale, Ariz.

The specially built Model 770K Mercedes-Benz is from the private collection of Tom Barrett, a Scottsdale developer.

Kruse and his brothers will sell more than 50 other antique, classic and exotic autos in the Scottsdale auction. They will include a 1912 Fiat, a 1915 Mercer, a 1910 Stoddard-Dayton, a 1925 Locomobile Sportiff special and a 1931 Isotta-Fraschini.

But the Hitler Mercedes is the top of the line.

Does Kruse actually think somebody will pay $100,000 for the armor-plated German mechanical jewel?

"That depends entirely upon how bad some museum or collector wants it," he said.

The Mercedes has to be one of the most looked-at cars in history.

Hitler transported himself, Mussolini, Baron Mannerheim and other notables in it on state occasions as millions heiled.

Der Fuehrer finally gave it to Mannerheim, who shipped it from Finland to Sweden to keep the Russians from getting it. The Swedish government seized it for taxes after Mannerheim's death.

The Swedes traded the car to an American importing firm for an undisclosed quantity of ball bearings. For a time it was exhibited in the Museum of Science and Industry at Rockefeller Center, New York.

The car has a retractable top, 2-inch-thick bulletproof door and windshield glass, armorplate doors and floor boards. It weighs 10,000 pounds.

A supercharged straight-8 engine, 467 cubic inches of piston displacement, reputedly can move the monster at more than 135 miles per hour.

Like a yacht, this is the kind of car you don't buy if you need to know the price. Its gas consumption is so voracious that it needs a 56-gallon tank.

Report London Flu Spreading

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Intuenza this winter has struck at least 15 states, but only three areas apparently are having any prolonged bout with the bug, reports the Center for Disease Control.

The CDC said Friday that widespread outbreaks of the London flu, a new strain belonging to the same virus family as Hong Kong flu, have been reported in New York City, Baltimore and Santa Clara County south of San Francisco.

State public health officials also have reported isolated cases in Hawaii, Arizona, Colorado, Kansas, Texas, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Tennessee, Illinois, Washington and New Jersey.

According to the CDC, the outbreak in the Baltimore area appears to be declining, although emergency-room visits are 5 to 10 per cent higher than normal.

Authorities at the CDC say there is no clinical difference between the London flu and the Hong Kong variety that was widespread in the United States in 1968-69.

"You feel just as bad with one as you do with the other," a spokesman said.

A Page Of Opinion

A Mellowing India

International relations are changing so rapidly these days it almost requires a diplomatic referee to keep score of the current postures. One of the next switches could be India's attitude toward the United States.

Relations between the two nations reached something of a new low in the wake of the India-Pakistan war. They had not been especially cordial for years. But the war on the Asian subcontinent and the inclination of Washington to favor a SEATO ally, Pakistan, brought harsh words from New Delhi.

India won that war and the rhetoric is changing. Communications have been exchanged between the President and the Prime Minister, each expressing the hope for improved understanding. India's Foreign Minister Swaran Singh has been making open overtures to the United States, stressing the desire for better cooperation and improved relations.

Two factors appear to be working toward a new relationship. India clearly is the dominant force in its part of Asia and is using its position to work slowly toward an accommodation with Pakistan. India also is seeking to repair its relations with China, which openly supported Pakistan in the conflict.

Economic considerations also are present, particularly in matters of trade. The new era of diplomatic ventures is proving to be contagious.

Simplifying Taxes?

Because of differences in national traditions and social systems, it can be misleading to compare the tax and welfare systems of the two nations. But Britain is headed for what appears to be one of the most extensive tax overhauls in its history, and the results should be interesting.

As part of its entry obligations to the European Economic Alliance, Britain in 1973 will adopt the value added tax. This levy, which amounts to a national sales tax, will replace the British purchase tax, a form of excise taxation. For the long run Britain is working on a complex plan of tax and social reform which has a negative income tax as one of its features. Plans under consideration would provide additional income to workers paid 25 pounds or less a week in the form of tax credits. Income tax would be at a 30 percent rate.

Five years may be required to implement the reforms, which are designed to simplify the tax system. The government claims it would result in fewer government employees to administer the tax system and reduce the workload on employers. The latter point may be misleading, because it would be through employers that the government would operate its negative income tax system.

These are all new programs for Britain, and many of them have been proposed for adoption in the United States. If parliament agrees to adopt the programs and they operate reasonably close to expectation, pressure could appear here for plans along the same lines.

Let's Bomb Copenhagen

By JEFFREY HART

Pundits can only guess — though most of them have already guessed — what caused the Paris talk to abort. They are blaming President Thieu. They may be right, but whether the 126 "changes" in the draft agreement supposed to have been demanded by Kissinger were the cause, or whether the "reopening" of substantive issues by the North Vietnamese was the precipitating factor, no outsider can say. Nevertheless, most outsiders are blaming President Thieu, with whom, judging by the rhetoric, you would think we were at war.

Probably the basic difficulty is structural. It simply is very difficult to end a war when neither side has won militarily, and when neither, really, has given up the goals for which it has fought so long. Each wrestles for advantage in the negotiation. And it is certainly possible, even likely, that factional shifts in the Hanoi politburo lie behind the present impasse.

But whatever reason at length emerges for the diplomatic breakdown, one thing is crystal clear at present. And that is that the vociferous global protest against renewed bombing of the North is morally and intellectually bankrupt.

Parenthetically, and to put it bluntly, it would not matter very much to history or mankind if North Vietnam ceased to exist. The country is a tough and obstreperous little military despotism fielding the best army, probably, in Southeast Asia. It is aggressive in its intent and a threat to all its neighbors. The provincials who run it have little sense of the outside world and are full of their own designs.

If North Vietnam were bombed, really bombed, the place would not be missed.

But what makes for nausea is the striking asymmetry of the present protest campaign. Copenhagen newspapers are describing the President as "Bloody Nixon," and characterizing his decision to renew the bombing as the product of a "stone age mentality." At the same time, the Danish premier weighed in and declared: "I want the United States out of Vietnam." None of these protesters had a word to say last spring when the North Vietnamese regular troops were swarming around in South Vietnam, overrunning towns and villages, generating hundreds of thousands of refugees, machine-gunning them on the roads as they fled southward, rocketing cities, and so on.

As I write this, we have lost 11 B-52 high-altitude bombers. What that suggests is that the planes are flying too low in order to make sure that they hit only military targets. Bloody Nixon, indeed. Those planes should fly at 40,000 feet, where they are virtually untouchable.

And it is a little hard to be lectured on morality from Copenhagen, of all places: the pornography, live sex show, and transvestite sex-change operation Capital of the World.

Predictably enough, the Dutch, the Finns, and the Swedes have denounced the raids. None of them denounced the May invasion of the South and the subsequent slaughters. Great moralists: the Swedes traded openly with Adolf Hitler until it was plain that he was losing; the Finns' foreign policy is mimeographed in Moscow; the Dutch government is a fragile coalition blackmailable by a vociferous and often violent left wing.

The truth remains that the Nixon Administration has gone very far — some would say too far — in its pursuit of a negotiated settlement in Vietnam. In South Vietnam, U.S. troops are leaving, but North Vietnamese are staying. Soviet rockets and artillery have laid waste to much of the country, but the U.S. is picking up the entire tab for reconstruction. And so on. To coin a phrase, there's something rotten in Denmark — and in a good many other places.

Hocking Hills Hike Plans Are Finalized

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Plans have been finalized for the eighth annual Winter Hike at Hocking Hills State Park on January 13, the Natural Resources Department announced Friday.

The hike, which had 1,500 participants last year, will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the park shelterhouse near Old Man's Cave. Each group of hikers will be led by a trained naturalist. The trip will offer scenic views of park landmarks.

Rhubarb originally came from Mongolia, but is grown both in Europe and America. Technically it is a vegetable, but people usually prepare it as a dessert food, mostly as pie fillings and sweet sauces.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 2, the second day of 1973. There are 363 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1942, in the early days of the Pacific war, the Philippine capital of Manila was captured by the Japanese.

On this date:

In 1492, the Spaniards took Granada from the Moors.

In 1788, Georgia became the fourth state to ratify the U.S. Constitution.

In 1890, the first woman to be hired by the White House reported for work. She was a stenographer, Alice B. Sanger of Indianapolis.

In 1900, the Open Door policy, defining foreign trade policy in China, was announced by U.S. Secretary of State John Hay.

In 1905, the Russians surrendered the Manchurian city of Port Arthur to the Japanese.

In 1970, 66 persons suffocated and were trampled to death when a crowd barrier gave way at a soccer match in Glasgow, Scotland.

Ten years ago: Five U.S. helicopters were shot down in South Vietnam, bringing to 30 the number of Americans killed in action since the United States began aiding the Saigon government.

Five years ago: President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a Social Security bill raising pensions by 13 per cent and increasing Social Security taxes.

One year ago: Pat Nixon arrived in Liberia to begin a goodwill trip in Africa.

Today's birthday: Opera singer Renata Tebaldi is 51.

Thought for today: It is easy to be wise after the event — English proverb.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My husband was told to take a tranquilizer drug because he is so full of tension.

He refuses to do it because he says he doesn't believe in drugs, and anyway, these drugs are not the cure for his problems.

Perhaps if you wrote a column about this he might be convinced.

Mrs. L.R., Ohio

Dear Mrs. R.:

"I don't believe in drugs" or "I want to see if I can do without it" are familiar comments to all physicians in the practice of medicine.

In some instances, it is almost impossible to argue with those who make a "religious belief" out of their denial to use drugs.

Somehow, they fallaciously believe that it is a sign of weakness to depend on any drug that is prescribed for them.

This happens particularly when tranquilizing drugs are suggested. Some patients feel they are stigmatized by the need to "quiet down" from physical and emotional tensions.

Excessive anxiety, multiple pressures, and undue tensions are the obvious ingredients in an overly tense patient.

Tranquilizing drugs have a profound and important effect in relieving these tensions. These drugs represent a tremendous advance in the treatment of severe psycho-neurotic states.

Often they are used for a short while until the patient can work out his tension-producing problems, or until he, with proper guidance, learns to eliminate them.

Taking a tranquilizer when it is prescribed by a physician is no more of a reflection on the ego structure than is taking an antibiotic for an infection.

Your husband is correct in believing that a tranquilizer is not the answer to serious emotional problems. When such problems are completely understood and solved, the short-term use of tranquilizers may not be necessary.

The hair on the inside of my nose was cut short by a barber. Soon after that, I developed a pimple in my nose which stayed with me for three weeks.

Could it possibly be that the scissors were dirty?

Mr. S.E., R.I.

Dear Mr. E.:

I doubt it. My own experience with barbers is that they are extremely careful to use clean scissors, and when cutting the hairs, stay away from the roots.

It may be pure coincidence that the pimple appeared shortly after the hairs were cut.

These tiny hair infections do occur, however, when the hair is plucked by hand, with or without a handkerchief.

For anyone using scissors for these purposes it is good judgment to clean them with alcohol first.

Special class training on homicide investigation was held for members of the Circleville Police Dept. The meeting was held in the basement classroom of the City Hall building and law enforcement officers from surrounding counties attended the class. Joe Martin, assistant supervisor at the London Bureau of Criminal investigation, headed the instruction showing the group colored slides along with illustrations for the benefit of the class.

Juvenile delinquency in Pickaway County during 1962 showed a marked decrease compared to the 1961 cases it was reported. The court handled a total of 73 delinquent cases compared to the 80 cases reported the year before.

Leslie Bell, Fairland Ind., wanted to know how he could join the Burlington Liars Club. . . Bell in a letter to the Herald said he had read in an Indianapolis paper about Walter (Stag) Lewis of Williamsport winning the world champion liar award. Those who were interested in liar competition were able to send their tales to The Burlington Liars Club, Burlington, Wis.

Arthur A. Hoopingarner, a former publisher of the Circleville Herald, was named assistant state auditor in the administration of Gov.-elect James A. Rhodes. Hoopingarner's appointment was announced by Roger W. Tracy who became state auditor in the new Republican regime. Hoopingarner was put in charge of personal operations.

New postal rates for Circleville and the rest of the nation went up on January 6, 1963. Postage for first class letters jumped from 4 to 5 cents, postcards became four cents instead of three, and air mail rates were hiked from seven to eight cents.

They'll Do It Every Time

A Page Of Opinion

A Mellowing India

International relations are changing so rapidly these days it almost requires a diplomatic referee to keep score of the current postures. One of the next switches could be India's attitude toward the United States.

Relations between the two nations reached something of a new low in the wake of the India-Pakistan war. They had not been especially cordial for years. But the war on the Asian subcontinent and the inclination of Washington to favor a SEATO ally, Pakistan, brought harsh words from New Delhi.

India won that war and the rhetoric is changing. Communications have been exchanged between the President and the Prime Minister, each expressing the hope for improved understanding. India's Foreign Minister Swaran Singh has been making open overtures to the United States, stressing the desire for better cooperation and improved relations.

Two factors appear to be working toward a new relationship. India clearly is the dominant force in its part of Asia and is using its position to work slowly toward an accommodation with Pakistan. India also is seeking to repair its relations with China, which openly supported Pakistan in the conflict.

Economic considerations also are present, particularly in matters of trade. The new era of diplomatic ventures is proving to be contagious.

Simplifying Taxes?

Because of differences in national traditions and social systems, it can be misleading to compare the tax and welfare systems of the two nations. But Britain is headed for what appears to be one of the most extensive tax overhauls in its history, and the results should be interesting.

As part of its entry obligations to the European Economic Alliance, Britain in 1973 will adopt the value added tax. This levy, which amounts to a national sales tax, will replace the British purchase tax, a form of excise taxation.

For the long run Britain is working on a complex plan of tax and social reform which has a negative income tax as one of its features. Plans under consideration would provide additional income to workers paid 25 pounds or less a week in the form of tax credits. Income tax would be at a 30 percent rate.

Five years may be required to implement the reforms, which are designed to simplify the tax system. The government claims it would result in fewer government employees to administer the tax system and reduce the workload on employers. The latter point may be misleading, because it would be through employers that the government would operate its negative income tax system.

These are all new programs for Britain, and many of them have been proposed for adoption in the United States. If parliament agrees to adopt the programs and they operate reasonably close to expectation, pressure could appear here for plans along the same lines.

Let's Bomb Copenhagen

By JEFFREY HART

Pundits can only guess — though most of them have already guessed — what caused the Paris talk to abort. They are blaming President Thieu. They may be right, but whether the 126 "changes" in the draft agreement supposed to have been demanded by Kissinger were the cause, or whether the "reopening" of substantive issues by the North Vietnamese was the precipitating factor, no outsider can say. Nevertheless, most outsiders are blaming President Thieu, with whom, judging by the rhetoric, you would think we were at war.

Probably the basic difficulty is structural. It simply is very difficult to end a war when neither side has won militarily, and when neither, really, has given up the goals for which it has fought so long. Each wrestles for advantage in the negotiation. And it is certainly possible, even likely, that factional shifts in the Hanoi politburo lie behind the present impasse.

But whatever reason at length emerges for the diplomatic breakdown, one thing is crystal clear at present. And that is that the vociferous global protest against renewed bombing of the North is morally and intellectually bankrupt.

Parenthetically, and to put it bluntly, it would not matter very much to history or mankind if North Vietnam ceased to exist. The country is a tough and obstreperous little military despotism fielding the best army, probably, in Southeast Asia. It is aggressive in its intent and a threat to all its neighbors. The provincials who run it have little sense of the outside world and are full of their own designs.

If North Vietnam were bombed, really bombed, the place would not be missed.

But what makes for nausea is the striking asymmetry of the present protest campaign. Copenhagen newspapers are describing the President as "Bloody Nixon," and characterizing his decision to renew the bombing as the product of a "stone age mentality." At the same time, the Danish premier weighed in and declared: "I want the United States out of Vietnam." None of these protesters had a word to say last spring when the North Vietnamese regular troops were swarming around in South Vietnam, overrunning towns and villages, generating hundreds of thousands of refugees, machine-gunning them on the roads as they fled southward, rocketing cities, and so on.

As I write this, we have lost 11 B-52 high-altitude bombers. What that suggests is that the planes are flying too low in order to make sure that they hit only military targets. Bloody Nixon, indeed. Those planes should fly at 40,000 feet, where they are virtually untouchable.

And it is a little hard to be lectured on morality from Copenhagen, of all places: the pornography, live sex show, and transvestite sex-change operation Capital of the World.

Predictably enough, the Dutch, the Finns, and the Swedes have denounced the raids. None of them denounced the May invasion of the South and the subsequent slaughters. Great moralists: the Swedes traded openly with Adolf Hitler until it was plain that he was losing; the Finns' foreign policy is mimeographed in Moscow; the Dutch government is a fragile coalition blackmailable by a vociferous and often violent left wing.

The truth remains that the Nixon Administration has gone very far — some would say too far — in its pursuit of a negotiated settlement in Vietnam. In South Vietnam, U.S. troops are leaving, but North Vietnamese are staying. Soviet rockets and artillery have laid waste to much of the country, but the U.S. is picking up the entire tab for reconstruction. And so on. To coin a phrase, there's something rotten in Denmark — and in a good many other places.

Hocking Hills Hike Plans Are Finalized

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Plans have been finalized for the eighth annual Winter Hike at Hocking Hills State Park on January 13, the Natural Resources Department announced Friday.

The hike, which had 1,500 participants last year, will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the park shelterhouse near Old Man's Cave. Each group of hikers will be led by a trained naturalist. The trip will offer scenic views of park landmarks.

Rhubarb originally came from Mongolia, but is grown both in Europe and America. Technically it is a vegetable, but people usually prepare it as a dessert food, mostly as pie fillings and sweet sauces.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 2, the second day of 1973. There are 363 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1942, in the early days of the Pacific war, the Philippine capital of Manila was captured by the Japanese.

On this date:

In 1492, the Spaniards took Granada from the Moors.

In 1788, Georgia became the fourth state to ratify the U.S. Constitution.

In 1890, the first woman to be hired by the White House reported for work. She was a stenographer, Alice B. Sanger of Indianapolis.

In 1900, the Open Door policy, defining foreign trade policy in China, was announced by U.S. Secretary of State John Hay.

In 1905, the Russians surrendered the Manchurian city of Port Arthur to the Japanese.

In 1970, 66 persons suffocated and were trampled to death when a crowd barrier gave way at a soccer match in Glasgow, Scotland.

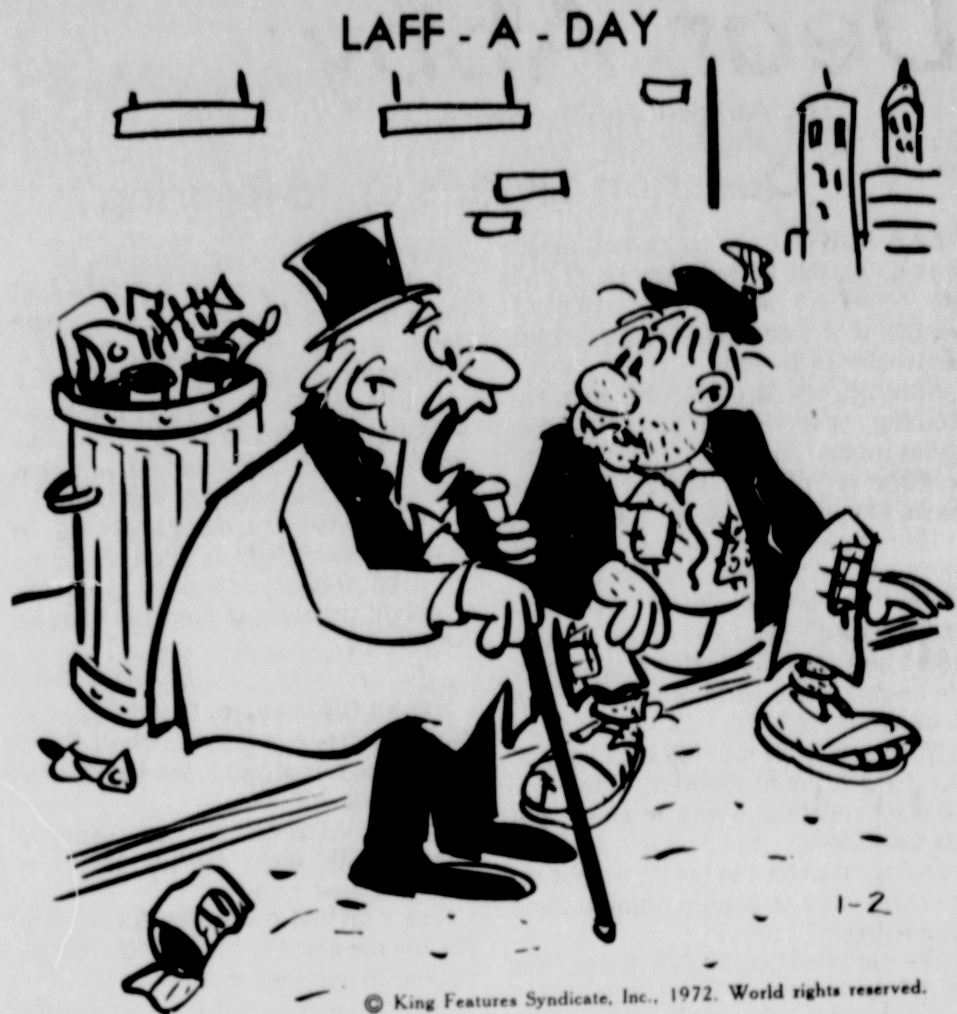

Ten years ago: Five U.S. helicopters were shot down in South Vietnam, bringing to 30 the number of Americans killed in action since the United States began aiding the Saigon government.

Five years ago: President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a Social Security bill raising pensions by 13 per cent and increasing Social Security taxes.

One year ago: Pat Nixon arrived in Liberia to begin a goodwill trip in Africa.

Today's birthday: Opera singer Renata Tebaldi is 51.

Thought for today: It is easy to be wise after the event — English proverb.

"You're broke before taxes and I'm broke after taxes!"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My husband was told to take a tranquilizer drug because he is so full of tension.

He refuses to do it because he says he doesn't believe in drugs, and anyway, these drugs are not the cure for his problems.

Perhaps if you wrote a column about this he might be convinced.

Mrs. L.R., Ohio

Dear Mrs. R.:

"I don't believe in drugs" or "I want to see if I can do without it" are familiar comments to all physicians in the practice of medicine.

In some instances, it is almost impossible to argue with those who make a "religious belief" out of their denial to use drugs.

Somehow, they fallaciously believe that it is a sign of weakness to depend on any drug that is prescribed for them.

he, with proper guidance, learns to eliminate them.

Taking a tranquilizer when it is prescribed by a physician is no more of a reflection on the ego structure than is taking an antibiotic for an infection.

Your husband is correct in believing that a tranquilizer is not the answer to serious emotional problems. When such problems are completely understood and solved, the short-term use of tranquilizers may not be necessary.

The hair on the inside of my nose was cut short by a barber. Soon after that, I developed a pimple in my nose that stayed with me for three weeks.

Could it possibly be that the scissors were dirty?

Mr. S.E., R.I.

Dear Mr. E.:

I doubt it. My own experience with barbers is that they are extremely careful to use clean scissors, and when cutting the hairs, stay away from the roots.

It may be pure coincidence that the pimple appeared shortly after the hairs were cut.

These tiny hair infections do occur, however, when the hair is plucked by hand, with or without a handkerchief.

For anyone using scissors for these purposes it is good judgment to clean them with alcohol first.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Nothing will seem free in 1973.

But there is no reason for mankind to give up hope, according to our annual Fuzzy Forecast of the year ahead. A glance at the old crystal ball reveals both good news and bad news.

The good news is that jobs will become more plentiful. The bad news is that prices will go on rising, and more and more people will accept the viewpoint that inflation has become a permanent way of life in the United States.

A move will develop to abolish penny coins on the grounds that they clutter up the pockets, slow cash transactions and are no longer worth counting. Twenty years from now an attempt will be made to drop the nickel for the same reasons.

A medical quack will announce that he has solved the problem of cancer and that it is on the edge of extinction. He will die of the disease himself later in the year.

Congress will ban cigarette smoking during meetings in both the House and Senate chambers. The telling of lewd stories in the cloakrooms will also be prohibited. Snuff and chewing tobacco will continue to be allowed. A move to raise congressional salaries and pensions will be abandoned after voters stage a national chain letter protest.

Developments on the international front:

London will offer to set Wales and Scotland free if the struggling Irish will just settle down and behave themselves like the decent Englishmen they aren't.

In Paris, the French Academy will unanimously turn down a proposal that Americanese be taught as a second language in France.

A half dozen mass riots and small wars will break out in Africa. They will die down soon, however, when the rest of a war-weary world refuses to pay any attention to them.

The loudest political laugh of the year will take place when Henry Kissinger opens a Christmas present from a well-wisher — and it turns out to be a brand new megaphone.

On the sports front:

Moscow will announce that the Russians defeated Red China's ping pong team in a secret match. Peking will deny the report for three straight days, and on the fourth day Chairman Mao will volunteer to play the whole Russian team single-handed himself — if he can keep score.

Other developments:

Two long-haired teen-age freaks in San Francisco will go through a traditional wedding, but only after the minister agrees to read the marriage vows backward.

In summary, 1973 promises to be just another of those years that will be more fun to look back on later than to go through now.

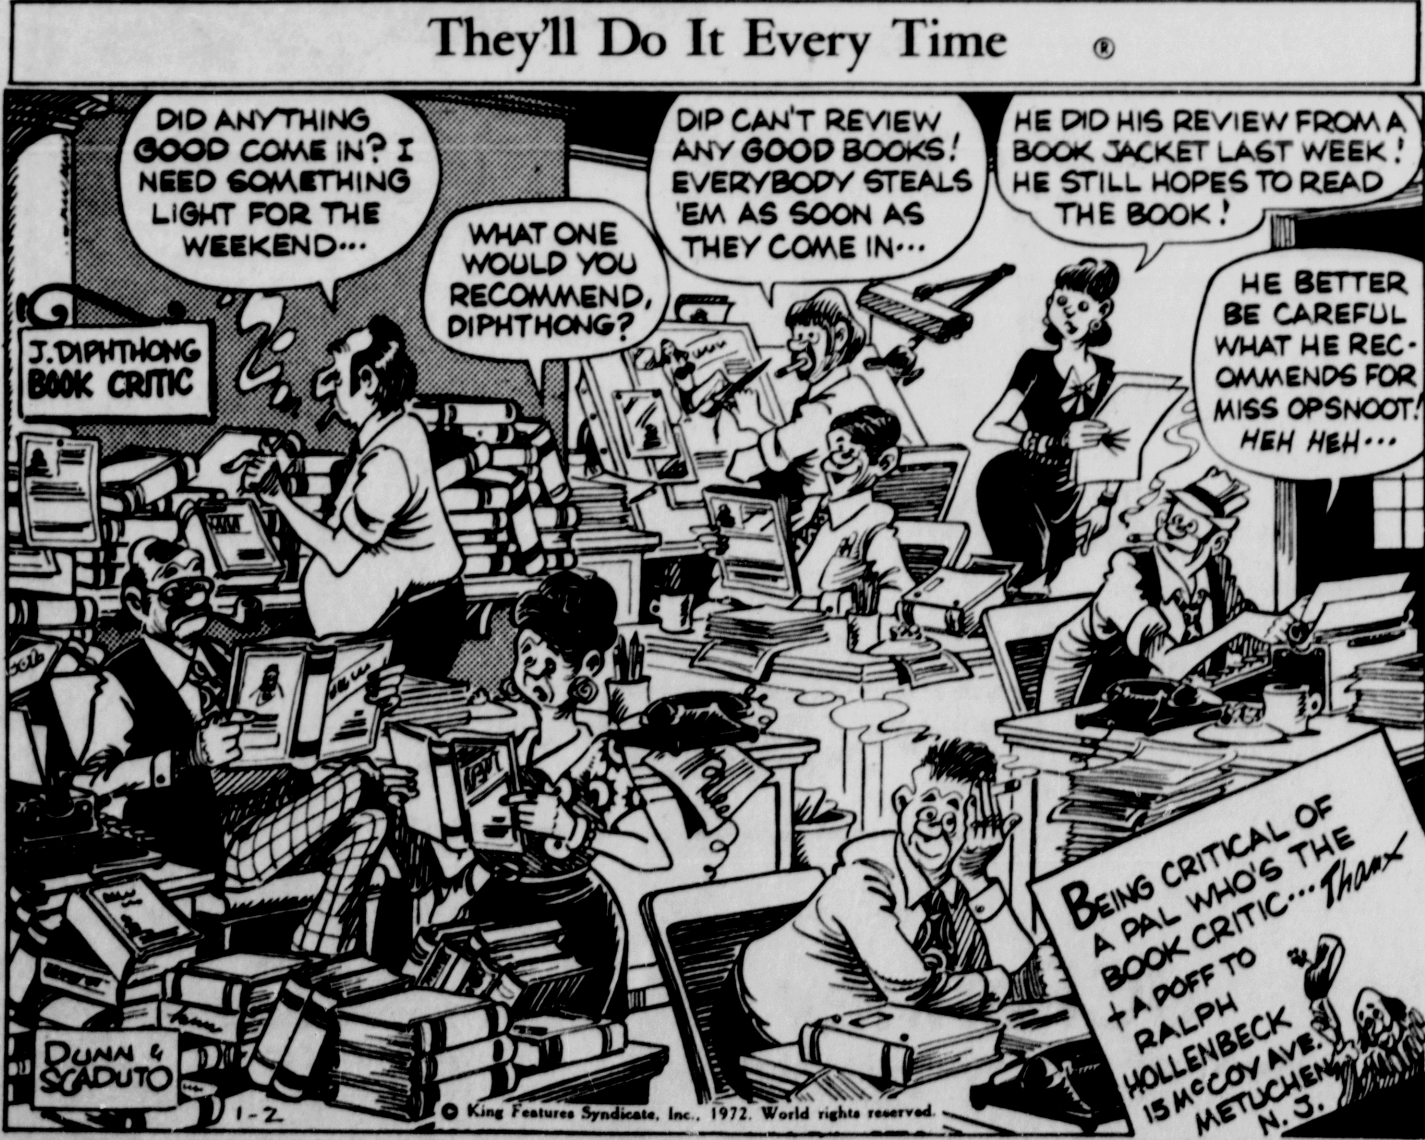

Ohio Refugees To Receive Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Welfare assistance will be made available to American victims of last week's Nicaraguan earthquake who return to the state, Ohio Welfare Director Charles W. Bates said Friday.

Bates said an undetermined number of the victims of that earthquake will be arriving at various points in Ohio during the weekend. He said they are former Ohioans or others with relatives in the state.

The welfare director said the program will be carried out by county welfare departments. Food, clothing, lodging, medical assistance and services necessary to help the victims find jobs here will be supplied, he added.

According to Bates the program is totally reimbursable by the federal government.

Old Fashioned Wickerwork Used With New Accessories

NEW AND OLD—Wickerwork clock and sconces hang over table made in 1880s.

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Wait long enough and yesterday's fashions return to become today's fads. This is the case with wicker, just reintroduced in a collection of all accessories that have nostalgic appeal. Their wickerwork, finished in yellow lacquer or in a natural walnut woodtone, blends beautifully with contemporary furnishings as well as with antiques — the latter because these new pieces have old-fashioned charm themselves.

Wicker enjoyed its peak of popularity in the early 19th century. It was primarily used for porch furnishings. The collector's items that have survived run mainly to chairs — including rockers, of course — settees, small tables and stands and such miscellany as magazine racks. Apparently, wicker was never used for clock cases, candle sconces or mirror frames — as it is in the new Arabesque collection pictured here — but its airy charm seems a natural for these decorative accessories.

Forecast

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Cold weather continued across the Buckeye State overnight and temperatures at dawn ranged from 19 at Dayton to 28 at Cleveland.

Skies remained cloudy over the northeast, which helped keep temperatures higher, but elsewhere skies were clear. A few light snow flurries were reported overnight at Youngstown.

A large high pressure area centered over Arkansas early today dominated most of the nation's weather east of the Rockies. Westerly winds produced by the high brought cold air to Ohio.

Cloudy skies were expected to remain over the northeastern part of the state today, but sunny skies were forecast elsewhere.

The cold weather will remain through tonight, and the high pressure area is expected to nudge the last clouds out of northeastern Ohio later tonight.

Temperatures tonight are expected to drop to the low to mid 20s.

Southerly winds on the backside of the high Wednesday will pull warmer air into the state, bringing highs from the upper 30s to mid 40s, compared with readings in the 30s today.

Neat Tricks For 'Sloppy Joes'

By ALICE DENHOFF

Sloppy joe holds his own despite the allure of the pizza and other teenage gourmetries.

So Sloppy Joe it is today, but a turned-on version that we think youngsters and their elders will consume with pleasure, especially at this time of year with the demand for heartier fare.

So off we go to prepare 8 servings of:
TURNED-ON CHILI SLOPPY JOES

1 pound ground lean beef
1 tablespoon shortening
1 cup canned tomatoes
1-3 cup sweet pepper flakes
1/4 cup instant minced onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 cup drained kidney beans
1/8 teaspoon black pepper
1 to 2 teaspoons chili powder
8 hamburger buns.

Brown meat in shortening, stirring frequently. Add tomatoes, pepper flakes, onion, and salt. Stir and cook until mixture has thickened, about 10 minutes. Add kidney beans, black pepper and chili powder; cook 5 minutes longer.

Serve between split, hot hamburger buns and accept congratulations!

CHILI AND FRANKFURTER HERO SANDWICH

1/2 pound ground chuck
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 cans (1 pound each) kidney beans, drained
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper
2 tablespoons chili powder
1/4 cup tomato paste
12 frankfurters, split
6 Italian hero rolls
Butter or margarine, softened
Prepared mustard

Cook meat in butter until meat loses red color. Add beans, salt, red pepper, chili powder, tomato paste. Stir and cook 2 minutes or until hot. Brown frankfurters.

Meanwhile, split rolls in lengthwise halves. Spread with softened butter. Spoon the meat and bean mixture between the rolls. Top with split franks.

If desired, sprinkle lightly with additional crushed red pepper and spread frankfurters with prepared mustard. Pretty hot stuff!

For the unswerving frankfurter fan.
GRILLED OPEN-FACED CHEESE AND FRANK SANDWICH

1 teaspoon powdered mustard
1 teaspoon water
1-3 cup softened butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon instant garlic powder
16 slices bread
8 slices American cheese
8 frankfurters
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Mix mustard with water; let stand 10 minutes. Combine butter and garlic powder and hydrated mustard; spread mixture over one side of 8 bread slices. Top each with a slice of American cheese.

Cut frankfurters in halves crosswise, then split each length wise. (To prevent franks from curling at ends, hold in place with toothpicks.) Place 4 pieces (1 frankfurter) over each slice cheese-topped bread. Brush melted butter or margarine over the top.

Old Fashioned Wickerwork Used With New Accessories

NEW AND OLD—Wickerwork clock and sconces hang over table made in 1880s.

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Wait long enough and yesterday's fashions return to become today's fads. This is the case with wicker, just reintroduced in a collection of all accessories that have nostalgic appeal. Their wickerwork, finished in yellow lacquer or in a natural walnut woodtone, blends beautifully with contemporary furnishings as well as with antiques — the latter because these new pieces have old-fashioned charm themselves.

Wicker enjoyed its peak of popularity in the early 19th century. It was primarily used for porch furnishings. The collector's items that have survived run mainly to chairs — including rockers, of course — settees, small tables and stands and such miscellany as magazine racks. Apparently, wicker was never used for clock cases, candle sconces or mirror frames — as it is in the new Arabesque collection pictured here — but its airy charm seems a natural for these decorative accessories.

3 Juveniles Held

In Cincinnati Blaze

CINCINNATI (AP)—Three juveniles were held today in connection with a $2,500 apartment building blaze which firemen said appeared to have been set intentionally.

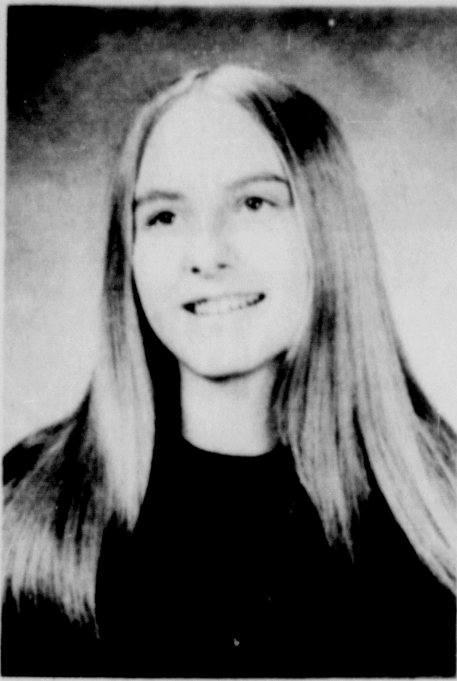

A Cincinnati arson squad member said he would meet with Hamilton County Juvenile Court authorities today to discuss possible charges against the youths.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Cold weather continued across the Buckeye State overnight and temperatures at dawn ranged from 19 at Dayton to 28 at Cleveland.

Skies remained cloudy over the northeast, which helped keep temperatures higher, but elsewhere skies were clear. A few light snow flurries were reported overnight at Youngstown.

A large high pressure area centered over Arkansas early today dominated most of the nation's weather east of the Rockies. Westerly winds produced by the high brought cold air to Ohio.

Cloudy skies were expected to remain over the northeastern part of the state today, but sunny skies were forecast elsewhere.

The cold weather will remain through tonight, and the high pressure area is expected to nudge the last clouds out of northeastern Ohio later tonight.

Temperatures tonight are expected to drop to the low to mid 20s. Southerly winds on the backside of the high Wednesday will pull warmer air into the state, bringing highs from the upper 30s to mid 40s, compared with readings in the 30s today.

CINCINNATI (AP)—People in Cincinnati are now barred from buying or selling products made from a number of endangered species of animals.

Neat Tricks For 'Sloppy Joes'

By ALICE DENHOFF

Sloppy joe holds his own despite the allure of the pizza and other teenage gourmetries.

So Sloppy Joe it is today, but a turned-on version that we think youngsters and their elders will consume with pleasure, especially at this time of year with the demand for heartier fare.

So off we go to prepare 8 servings of:

TURNED-ON CHILI SLOPPY JOES

1 pound ground lean beef
1 tablespoon shortening
1 cup canned tomatoes
1-3 cup sweet pepper flakes
1/4 cup instant minced onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 cup drained kidney beans
1/8 teaspoon black pepper
1 to 2 teaspoons chili powder
8 hamburger buns.

Brown meat in shortening, stirring frequently. Add tomatoes, pepper flakes, onion, and salt. Stir and cook until mixture has thickened, about 10 minutes. Add kidney beans, black pepper and chili powder; cook 5 minutes longer.

Serve between split, hot hamburger buns and accept congratulations!

CHILI AND FRANKFURTER HERO SANDWICH

1/2 pound ground chuck
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
2 cans (1 pound each) kidney beans, drained
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon crushed red pepper
2 tablespoons chili powder
1/4 cup tomato paste
12 frankfurters, split
6 Italian hero rolls
Butter or margarine, softened
Prepared mustard

Cook meat in butter until meat loses red color. Add beans, salt, red pepper, chili powder, tomato paste. Stir and cook 2 minutes or until hot. Brown frankfurters.

Meanwhile, split rolls in lengthwise halves. Spread with softened butter. Spoon the meat and bean mixture between the rolls. Top with split franks.

If desired, sprinkle lightly with additional crushed red pepper and spread frankfurters with prepared mustard. Pretty hot stuff!

For the unsweating frankfurter fan.

GRILLED OPEN-FACED

CHEESE AND FRANK

SANDWICH

1 teaspoon powdered mustard
1 teaspoon water
1-3 cup softened butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon instant garlic powder
16 slices bread
8 slices American cheese
8 frankfurters
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
Mix mustard with water; let stand 10 minutes. Combine butter and garlic powder and hydrated mustard; spread mixture over one side of 8 bread slices. Top each with a slice of American cheese.

Cut frankfurters in halves crosswise, then split each length wise. (To prevent franks from curling at ends, hold in place with toothpicks.) Place 4 pieces (1 frankfurter) over each slice cheese-topped bread. Brush melted butter or margarine over the top.

Ohio Counts 24 Highway Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Ohio Highway Patrol reported 24 persons had been killed on the state's roads during the New Year's weekend—one more than predicted by the state's Department of Highway Safety.

Eight pedestrians were killed during the 78-hour period that began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Monday.

Two of the pedestrians killed were young boys struck by hit-and-run drivers.

FRIDAY NIGHT
EUCLID—John Fyfe, 4, Euclid, struck down by a hit-and-run driver on a Euclid street.

NORWALK—Kelly Howard, 38, Willard, hit by a car as he walked along a Huron County road.

WARREN—Gerald Cross, 30, Cortland, when the garden tractor he was riding flipped over on Ohio 305 in Trumbull County. His wife was towing the tractor.

XENIA—Richard Caskey, 32, Bellbrook, in a one car accident on a rural road one mile north of Bellbrook.

SATURDAY
CANTON—Bessie Long, 51, Canton, in a two-car collision in Canton.

RAVENNA—Inez Nisly, 13, Hartsville, hit by a car while walking along a

Open Mine To Search For Bodies

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) — Consolidation Coal Co. crews were to remove seals from the firm's Blacksville No. 1 mine today and begin the search for the bodies of nine men trapped by fire in the shaft last summer.

Adler Spotte, president of Consolidation's Blacksville Division, said workmen would start removing the seals from the mine's underground entrances at 8 a.m. He said the first of three recovery teams would enter the mine about 4 p.m., after fans had cleared the tunnels of lingering gases and restored acceptable ventilation.

The nine men were trapped deep within the Monongalia County mine in northern West Virginia when a methane gas explosion occurred July 22, 1972. Hearings into the disaster disclosed that a mining machine cut an electrical wire, setting off a spark that ignited the highly volatile methane.

The sealing process, using steel and concrete and designed to extinguish the resulting fire, was completed July 25.

Officials had been unable to fix the exact location of the bodies in the mine, Spotte said. Parts of the mine were explored by rescue teams prior to the sealing and those sections have been excluded from current recovery plans, he added.

About 90 men will take part in the search for the bodies, Spotte said, including Davitt McAteer, an aide to United Mine Workers President Arnold Miller.

Roundtowners Set Tryouts For Fairy Tale

Open tryouts for the Roundtown Players' next production, "Jack and the Giant" will be held Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Memorial Hall Theater.

Mrs. Allan Berger will direct the play with Mrs. Edward Grigg as her assistant.

Based on the familiar fairy tale of "Jack and the Beanstalk", children and adults will be needed to portray the character roles. All interested persons are invited to the auditions.

Anyone wishing to read the script prior to tryouts may contact Mrs. Berger at 474-6335.

Fremont Mayor Dies

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — Fremont Mayor George Demmel, 60, died Monday of an apparent heart attack.

Demmel, a Republican, was serving his first elected term as mayor. He had served parts of two previous terms when he moved up from president of council after other mayors had resigned.

Weather Hits North And South

By THE ASSOCIATES PRESS

A belt of fair weather girdled the nation's midsection today from California to the Atlantic coast, but above and below it, residents suffered various torments from sand storms, snow storms, Chinook winds, rain and thundershowers.

The Southwest was whipped by snow and winds to 70 miles per hour in southeastern Arizona, New Mexico and southwest Texas. Heavy snow warnings were in effect for the area and heavy snow watches posted for the southern Texas panhandle and north-west Texas.

Strong winds blew up a sand storm across the desert areas of southern California making traveling hazardous.

The Pacific Northwest was sprinkled with rain and Montana braced itself for snow, strong winds and much colder temperatures. Chinook winds blew off the eastern slopes of the Rockies and whipped winds to 65 miles per hour at Livingston and Cutbank, Mont.

Snow showers whitened parts of the northern Mississippi Valley and much of the Great Lakes area.

Showers and thundershowers dampened areas from eastern Texas across the Gulf states in Southern Carolina.

80 Attend Grange Youth Conference

The sixth annual Pickaway County Grange Youth Conference held at fairgrounds during the weekend was the most successful ever held in Ohio. The conference was attended by 80 youth and interested grangers from 15 counties in the state.

Assisting with the conference was Patty Sherman, past National Grange Princess; Wib Justi, past National Grange Youth Chairman; Richard Carncross, Michigan State Lecturer; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hecathorn, Ohio State Grange Youth Directors.

Many past state winners in the Prince and Princess Contest were in attendance as were Mrs. Bernice Arter, Ohio State Grange Lecturer, and Dale Baker, Steward of the Ohio State Grange.

During the two day program, the youth discussed the current programs available to grange members, and attended workshops on Grange publicity and history.

In the afternoon, the young grangers held a caravan which took them to various parts of Circleville in search of

USC, Nebraska, Texas Win Major Contests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern California's topranked Trojans, unleashing a seemingly unstoppable attack, and Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers of Nebraska, displaying the superb form that garnered him the honor emblematic of the nation's finest college player, have left no doubt they deserve their honors.

The Trojans, bolstered by Sam Cunningham's four touchdowns, forged a 42-17 Rose Bowl victory over

Ohio State Monday and clinched the national college football championship.

Rodgers, although weakened by the flu, bolted for four touchdowns and passed for another as the Cornhuskers crushed Notre Dame 40-6 in the Orange Bowl. Texas upset Alabama 17-13 in the Cotton Bowl, rounding out New Year's Days' slate of bowl games.

"I tried hard tonight to prove I deserved it," Rodgers said of his Heisman selection. I think that's the longest game of my life. I've had the flu all week. I was really fatigued."

Rodgers, the 5-foot-9 speedster, scored on runs of eight, four and five yards, scored on a 50-yard pass play and rifled a 52-yard TD bomb to Frosty Anderson.

"I threw a lot in high school," Rodgers said. "I knew that if were able to fool them a little bit, I could get it to him." Rodgers took a lateral pass on the play and then lofted the ball to Anderson.

USC's Cunningham surged over from inside the two on all four of his touchdowns and sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 157 yards as the Trojans erupted from a 7-7 halftime deadlock and overwhelmed the Buckeyes. Cunningham's efforts established a Rose Bowl scoring record.

"We didn't make in changes in strategy," explained USC Coach John McKay. "We just kicked the pants off them."

Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes said he felt the 1972 Southern California team was the best he had ever faced. "You can run on them some—as we proved—but in the second half they passed us out of the park."

In the Sugar Bowl Sunday, Oklahoma blanked Penn State 14-0. In bowl games Saturday, Auburn bombed Colorado 24-3 in the Gator Bowl, North Carolina beat Texas Tech 32-28 in the Sun Bowl, the East defeated the West 9-3 in the Shrine game and Tennessee beat Louisiana State 24-18 in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Texas quarterback Alan Lowry

scampered 34 yards for a touchdown on a bootleg play as the Longhorns upset Alabama and maintained Coach Darrell Royal's record of never having lost to a Bear Bryant-coached team. Tinker Owens, a 17-year-old freshman, caught five passes for 132 yards and one touchdown as Oklahoma downed Penn State.

"I didn't think I'd be playing varsity ball this year," said Owens, brother of Oklahoma's Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens. "I really can't believe it."

HOLDING HANDS — Teays Valley's Jim Logsdon (44) and Dublin's Ron Termeer (45) appear to be holding hands as they watch Craig Pontius (14) of the Vikings hit a jump shot from the lane. Pontius tallied 222 points to pace the Blue and Gold to a 69-66 win over Dublin in a Metropolitan Leagus clash. Jeff Gafford (23) of the Shamrocks attempts to stop the blond sharpshooter but it was to no avail.

Dolphins Turn Back Steelers 21-17; Set Super Bowl Trip

PITTSBURGH (AP) — After a stopover in Pittsburgh, the Miami Dolphins are taking the high road to the Super Bowl. It's Los Angeles or bust. "We've been to the Super Bowl before and want to get there and win for a change," says Miami Coach Don Shula.

The Dolphins, who lost last year's National Football League championship game to the Dallas Cowboys, earned a return trip this year by beating the Pittsburgh Steelers 21-17 Sunday for the American Conference title.

The Dolphins will play the Washington Redskins Jan. 14 for the world title. The Redskins walloped the Cowboys Sunday for the National Conference championship.

"The Steelers are a young team and a tough team and you'll hear a lot from them in the next few years," said Shula.

Miami's heroics were provided by punter Larry Seiple, who ran a fake punt 37 yards to set up the tying score in the second quarter, and quarterback

Bob Griese, who led the Dolphins to a pair of secondhalf TDs after taking over for starter Earl Morrall.

Seiple, therefore, took advantage of the Steelers' inattention and ran off the key play.

"It was a very alert play," said Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll.

Despite the loss, Noll's Steelers weren't down.

"We are going to go all the way next season," declared defensive end Dwight White. "Say, I'm ready to go to camp right now."

Most other Steelers expressed similar sentiments, but at the same time, many conceded the end of the season, even though it came two weeks earlier than they had hoped, was a welcome relief.

"Of course I wish the season would have lasted two weeks longer," said defensive tackle Joe Greene. "But this is the longest season I've ever played and I'm ready for a rest."

Redskins Throttle Cowboys 26-3 To Earn Bowl Berth

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I'll tell you about this team," Washington defensive tackle Diron Talbert was saying. "We haven't even taken a team picture yet. The coach kept saying that we'd take it in Los Angeles. That's how confident he was."

George Allen's confidence paid off handsomely. His Redskins will have a chance to grin into the camera lens any time after next Sunday, when they arrive in California for the National Football League's Jan. 14 earthquake—Super Bowl VII.

Allen, so intensely involved in watching Washington dismantle Dallas' Doomsday defense, didn't even know who the 'Skins would be facing in the Super Bowl until running back Calvin Hill of the Cowboys "came up to me after the game and said, 'Good luck against Miami.'"

The Dolphins turned back the Pittsburgh Steelers 21-17 to win their second straight American Conference championship.

Then the Redskins, behind Billy Kilmer-to-Charley Taylor aerobatics, Curt Knight's radar kicking and a ferocious defense, throttled Dallas 26-3 for the National Conference title and their first trip to an NFL championship game since 1945.

On New Year's Day, the Washington coach savored the victory with some very select company—President Nixon. Allen and members of his family spent some time in the White House rose garden with the President, who commented: "I always root for the home team, and my home now is Washington."

If Allen had been confident in waiting to take the team picture, Nixon was downright prophetic.

"We are proud of our Redskins ... and we will be even more proud when we wish them bon voyage for their trip to Los Angeles and the Super Bowl."

Nighthawks Defeat Providence Reds, 5-2

The Springfield Kings and the New Haven Nighthawks may be holding up the Eastern Division standings in the American Hockey League, but it would be tough to prove to the Nova Scotia Voyageurs and the Providence Reds.

Nova Scotia's division leaders were battled to a 3-3 standoff by the Kings and the Reds had a six-game unbeaten string snapped in a 5-2 loss to the Nighthawks Monday night in the only league action.

Happy new year and it seems like old times for Bobby Orr.

Boston's super defenseman greeted 1973 with a record-tying six assists Monday night, leading the Bruins to an 8-2 romp over Vancouver in the only National Hockey League game played.

Vikings Edge Dublin In Metro Tilt, 69-66

Craig Pontius' 22 points sparked Teays Valley to a 69-66 come-from-behind win over Dublin in a Metropolitan League battle Saturday night on the Vikings' court.

The win gives the Vikings a 5-1 record in Metro play and a hold on the top rung of the ladder in the race for the title.

Pontius tallied 10 from the floor and two from the free throw line to lead the Vikings. Jim Logsdon added 16, Jeff Anderson had 12, Jay Brinker and Terry Lambert each had six, Terry Collins five and Jerry Sabine netted two.

Jeff Weber paced the Shamrocks and all scorers with 11 from the field and three from the charity stripe for 25 markers. Ron Termeer had 12, Bill Walker 10, Sam Dixon nine, Jeff Gifford six while Rod Termeer and Dave Stevens each had two.

Pontius hit on a jumper to open the scoring in the first period but the Shamrocks six straight buckets to grab a 12-2 lead. The Vikings battled back to cut the gap to 18-15 at the end of the canto.

The Shamrocks held a narrow lead throughout the second frame and were still on top 39-35 at halftime. A pair of baskets by Anderson and a layup by Logsdon put the Vikings on top with 4:34 left in the third stanza. The teams traded buckets the rest of the way and were tied 47-47 with 0:35 seconds to play in the canto. But two quick buckets by Logsdon underneath the hoop gave the Vikings a 51-47 margin at the conclusion of the quarter.

The Shamrocks tallied three buckets and a pair of free throws as the final stanza got underway to grab a 55-51 lead. But Pontius and Logsdon went to work on the nets and the Blue and Gold was back on top 61-60 with 2:32 still on the clock and they never trailed again.

Teasy Valley hit on 28 of 61 from the field and converted 13 of 19 from the foul line in the contest. Dublin shot 25 of 55 from the floor and hit 16 of 25 from the charity stripe. The Vikings pulled down 29 rebounds with Logsdon grabbing 12 while Dublin had 34 take downs from the boards with Ron Termeer getting 14.

The Vikings are now 5-4 for the season and will host Franklin Heights Friday night.

Coach Bill Lewis' undefeated Viking reserve squad ran its record to nine straight with a convincing 46-29 win over Dublin.

It was the Vikings all the way as they led 13-6 at the end of the first quarter, held a 27-12 margin at halftime and were out in front 39-18 at the conclusion of the third canto.

Kevin Pettibone led the Blue and Gold with nine points, George Spohn had eight, Steve Williams and Steve Gregory each tallied seven, Lee Stiles and Chuck Glitt had six apiece and David Glitt netted two. Shipley, Sampson and Hyder each had eight to lead Dublin.

Virtually unnoticed, the New Mexico Lobos have come to the fore in college basketball.

The Lobos, not mentioned in The Associated Press pre-season poll or in any of the weekly Top Twenty in the 1972 segment, finally joined the blue ribbon group in 1973.

Under new coach Norm Ellenberger, the Lobos scored their ninth victory in a row Saturday night, beating Seattle 70-54 for the championship of the Lobo Classic tourney at Albuquerque, N.M., and moved in as No. 16 in the polls.

Now the Lobos are pointing for the championship in the Western Athletic Conference, in which Brigham Young is favored. The Lobos' first WAC games are Friday against Arizona State and Saturday against Arizona.

Asked if his team is ready for conference action, Ellenberger replied: "If we're not, we better quit."

At any rate, the Lobos start the new year in the select company of such other unbeaten teams as national champion UCLA, Maryland, Marquette, North Carolina State, Minnesota, Long Beach State, Missouri and Southwestern Louisiana, all ranked in the AP Top Ten.

UCLA continued to hold forth as the country's No. 1 team, capturing all 26 first place ballots from the nation's sports writers and broadcasters for a total of 520 points.

Maryland remained No. 2 with 444 points while Marquette held on to No. 3 with 371.

The remainder of the select group included No. 4 North Carolina State with 355; No. 5 Long Beach State, 342; No. 6 Minnesota, 311; No. 7 Missouri, 283; No. 8 Southwestern Louisiana, 216; No. 9 North Carolina, 128, and No. 10 Houston, 127.

Penn and Vanderbilt were among the unbeatens until last week, when the Quakers lost to Cincinnati and San Francisco, and the Commodores were beaten by Memphis State.

UCLA, closing in on the collegiate all-time winning streak of 60 games, tries to extend its streak to 55 this weekend against Oregon Friday and Oregon State Saturday.

Vanderbilt also opens its drive for the Southeastern Conference title, against Louisiana State tonight, as the collegians resume action after a break for the New Year's holiday.

Sports World Mourns Roberto Clemente

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Puerto Rico's governor-elect canceled festivities for his inauguration today as the island joined the U.S. sports world in mourning Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder Roberto Clemente.

The 38-year-old Puerto Rican athlete—whose long, lashing bat, speedy baserunning and leaping catches earned him about $150,000 a year—was declared dead in the crash Sunday night of a plane taking off with relief supplies for earthquake victims at Managua, Nicaragua. Four others aboard the plane also died in the crash.

Gov.-elect Rafael Hernandez Colon canceled the inaugural ball and all other social activities of his swearing-in. He takes over today from Gov. Louis A. Ferre, who ordered three days of official mourning.

"He was one of the greatest persons I knew," said John Galbreath, the Pirates' board chairman. "If you have to die, how better could your death be exemplified than on a mission of mercy?"

Bill Virdon, the Pirates' manager, predicted baseball writers would vote Clemente into the Cooperstown, N.Y., Hall of Fame as soon as the five-year waiting period is up.

"His marvelous playing skills rank him among the truly elite," said Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn. "And what a wonderfully good man he was ... He had about him the touch of royalty."

Clemente was named on Christmas Eve to head Puerto Rico's earthquake-relief effort. He had visited Nicaragua a few weeks before as manager of an amateur baseball team participating in a tournament at Managua.

Sources at the San Juan airport said the four-engine DC7 plunged into the ocean as it was making a sharp left bank after takeoff. The plane was owned by a San Juan air-cargo operator.

Six-foot waves hampered the search in waters a mile and a half north of the airport. The Coast Guard said a suitcase and some wreckage was found and the search was to continue today. Clemente played his 18th season for the Pirates in 1972. They had paid the Dodgers $4,000 to draft the then obscure young player from Montreal in 1954.

His lifetime batting average was .318, and he won four National League batting titles while hitting better than .300 for 13 seasons.

He was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966 and 12 times he was selected for the All-Star Game.

Last season, Clemente's average was .312 for 102 games.

USC, Nebraska, Texas Win Major Contests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern California's topranked Trojans, unleashing a seemingly unstoppable attack, and Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers of Nebraska, displaying the superb form that garnered him the honor emblematic of the nation's finest college player, have left no doubt they deserve their honors.

The Trojans, bolstered by Sam Cunningham's four touchdowns, forged a 42-17 Rose Bowl victory over

Ohio State Monday and clinched the national college football championship.

Rodgers, although weakened by the flu, bolted for four touchdowns and passed for another as the Cornhuskers crushed Notre Dame 40-6 in the Orange Bowl. Texas upset Alabama 17-13 in the Cotton Bowl, rounding out New Year's Days' slate of bowl games.

"I tried hard tonight to prove I deserved it," Rodgers said of his Heisman selection. I think that's the longest game of my life. I've had the flu all week. I was really fatigued."

Rodgers, the 5-foot-9 speedster, scored on runs of eight, four and five yards, scored on a 50-yard pass play and rifled a 52-yard TD bomb to Frosty Anderson.

"I threw a lot in high school," Rodgers said. "I knew that if were we able to fool them a little bit, I could get it to him." Rodgers took a lateral pass on the play and then lofted the ball to Anderson.

USC's Cunningham surged over

from inside the two on all four of his touchdowns and sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 157 yards as the Trojans erupted from a 7-7 halftime deadlock and overwhelmed the Buckeyes. Cunningham's efforts established a Rose Bowl scoring record.

"We didn't make in changes in strategy," explained USC Coach John McKay. "We just kicked the pants off them."

Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes said he felt the 1972 Southern California team was the best he had ever faced.

"You can run on them some—as we proved—but in the second half they passed us out of the park."

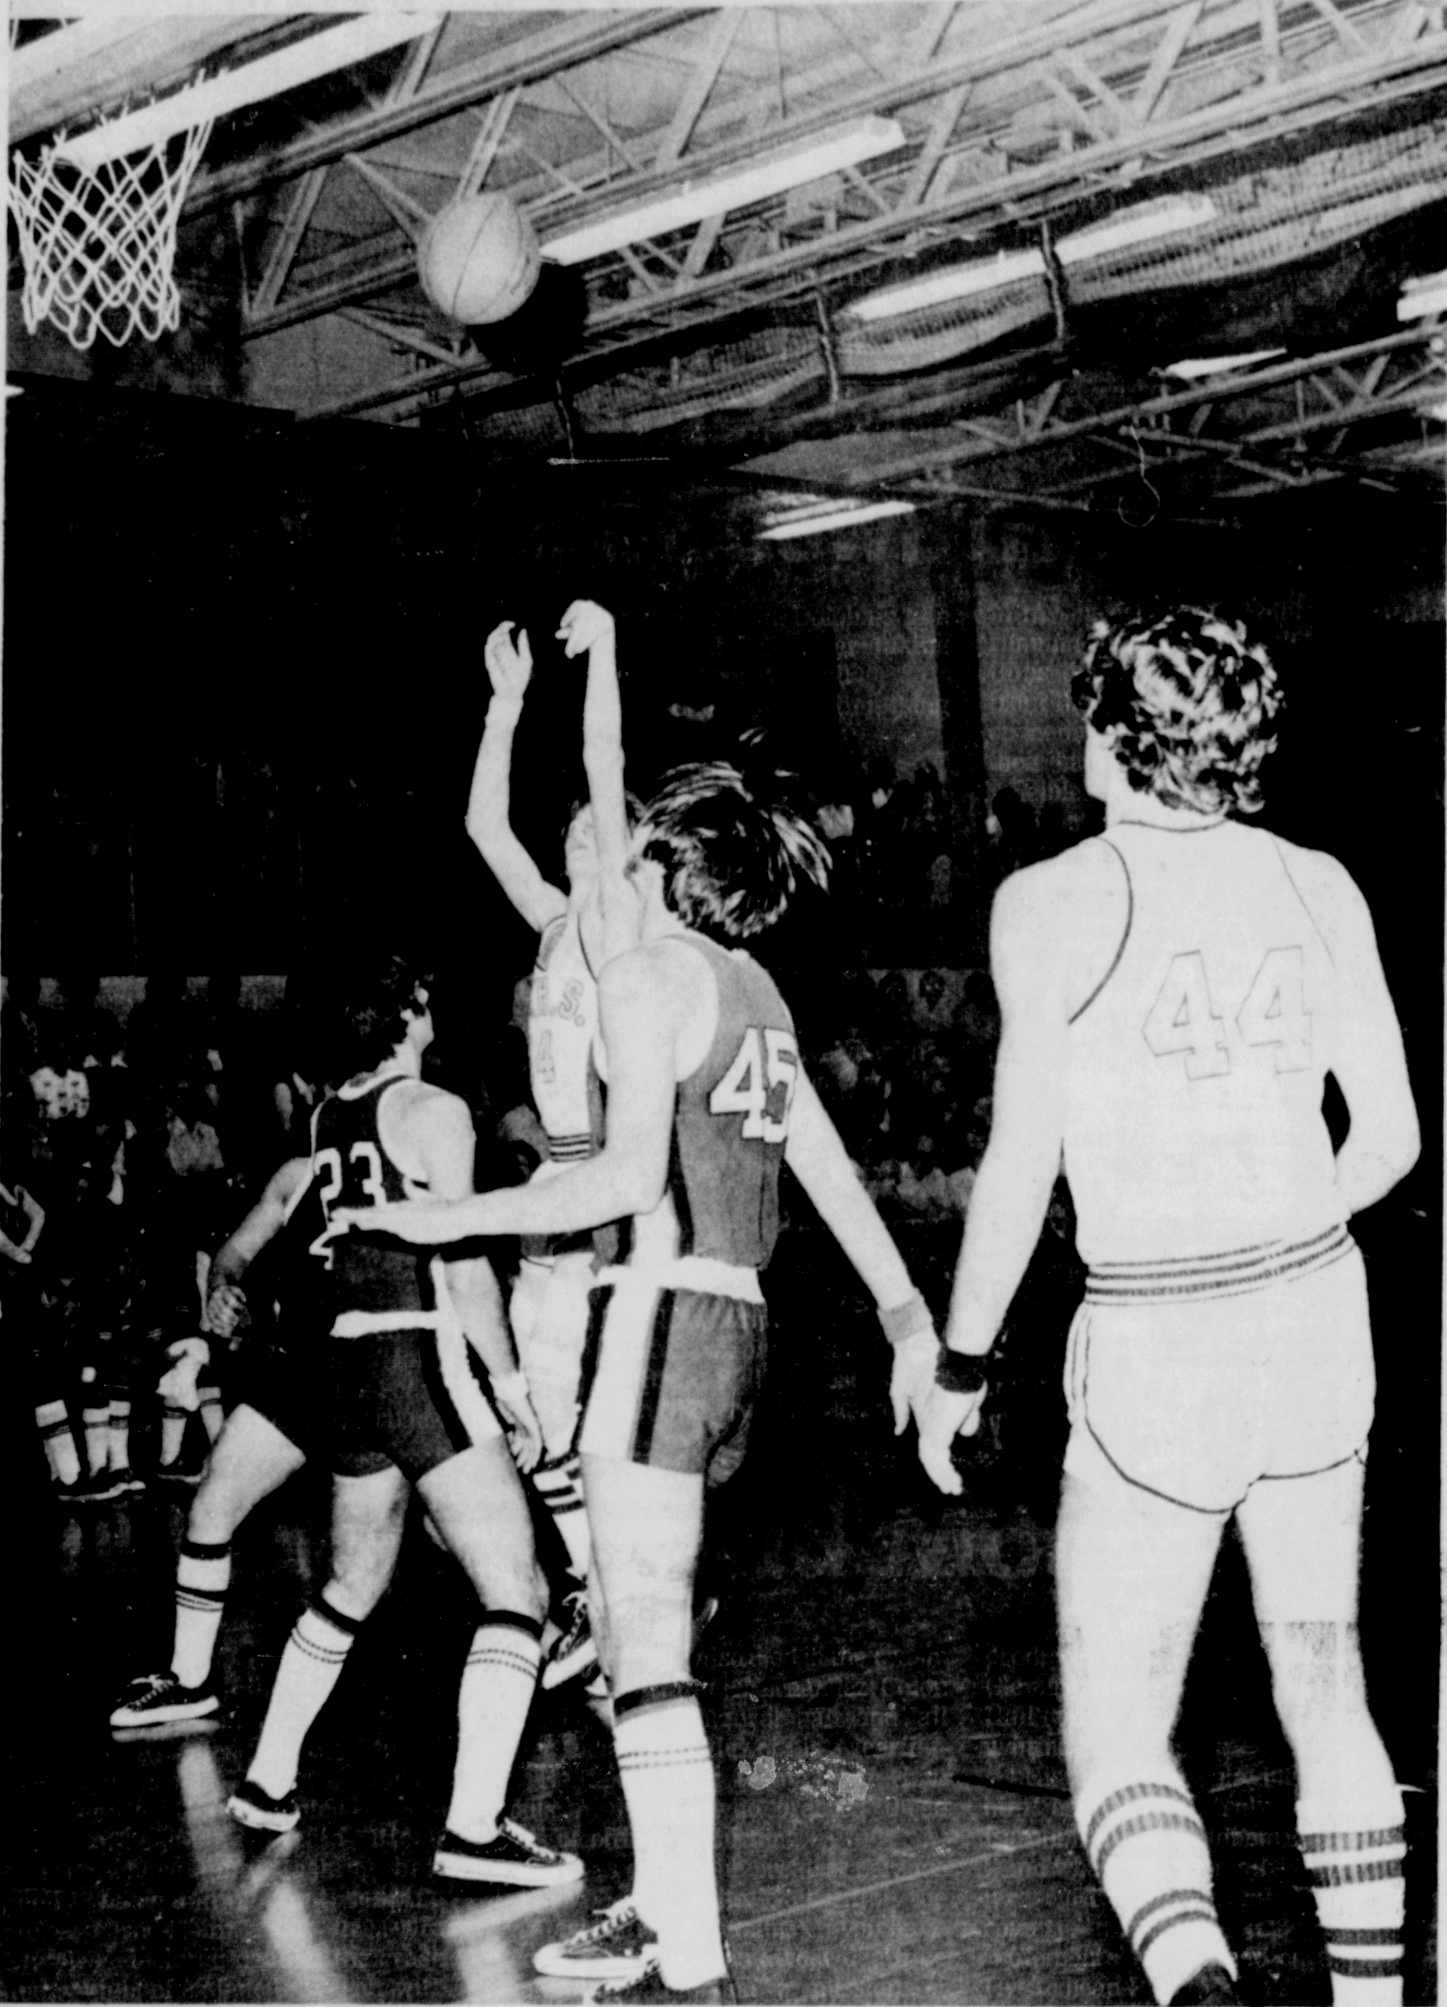

In the Sugar Bowl Sunday, Oklahoma blanked Penn State 14-0. In bowl games Saturday, Auburn bombed Colorado 24-3 in the Gator Bowl, North Carolina beat Texas Tech 32-28 in the Sun Bowl, the East defeated the West 9-3 in the Shrine game and Tennessee beat Louisiana State 24-18 in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Texas quarterback Alan Lowry

scampered 34 yards for a touchdown on a bootleg play as the Longhorns upset Alabama and maintained Coach Darrell Royal's record of never having lost to a Bear Bryant-coached team.

Tinker Owens, a 17-year-old freshman, caught five passes for 132 yards and one touchdown as Oklahoma downed Penn State.

"I didn't think I'd be playing varsity ball this year," said Owens, brother of Oklahoma's Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens. "I really can't believe it."

HOLDING HANDS — Teays Valley's Jim Logsdon (44) and Dublin's Ron Termeer (45) appear to be holding hands as they watch Craig Pontius (14) of the Vikings hit a jump shot from the lane. Pontius tallied 222 points to pace the Blue and Gold to a 69-66 win over Dublin in a Metropolitan Leagus clash. Jeff Gafford (23) of the Shamrocks attempts to stop the blond sharpshooter but it was too avail.

Dolphins Turn Back Steelers 21-17; Set Super Bowl Trip

PITTSBURGH (AP) — After a stopover in Pittsburgh, the Miami Dolphins are taking the high road to the Super Bowl. It's Los Angeles or bust. "We've been to the Super Bowl before and want to get there and win for a change," says Miami Coach Don Shula.

Hayes Hard On Photog, Equipment

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Woody Hayes exploded before, during and after one of his most crushing defeats, a 42-17 whipping from top-ranked Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

The stormy Ohio State coach bashed a photographer's camera, stomped a head set and knocked over a post-game interview microphone.

The beating Monday was the most points ever scored on Hayes' teams in 22 Ohio State seasons and ranked alongside the 41-6 loss to Purdue in 1967 as the worst in Hayes' long tenure.

Hayes took the lopsided loss to the Trojans bitterly.

For example, a question about Hayes' pre-game altercation with a photographer ended his brief, three-minute interview with this thundering reply from the Ohio State leader:

"Oh, for... sake, forget it."

Hayes then shoved a microphone off the platform on which he was standing and stalked out of the interview room.

"Those are big stories," he boomed.

Art Rogers, a veteran Los Angeles Times photographer, said Hayes shoved a camera back in his face while he tried to shoot a closeup of the Ohio State coach during the Buckeyes' pre-game warmups.

Rogers complained of double vision before going to a Rose Bowl emergency room. Officials said the photographer was not seriously hurt.

Football coach Bob Devaney of Nebraska formerly was an assistant coach at Michigan State.

Many Injured As Ski Lift Goes Wild

BURLEY, Idaho (AP)—"When the lift jerked, I thought maybe the lift had broke and I remembered a girl telling me about a lift breaking and people flying everywhere," said Lorelei Christian, 11, of Burley, after she was released from a hospital.

Lorelei was one of about 200 skiers on a double chairlift which flew out of control at Pomerelle Ski Area 18 miles southwest of here Monday afternoon. Chris Stevens, 29, of Hagerman, was in critical condition and four other persons were in satisfactory condition. Hospitals treated and released another dozen and an estimated 40 others suffered minor injuries.

"I wanted to stay in the chair," Lorelei said, "but the other girl fell out and the chair bounced and I fell out. Next thing I knew I was laying on the ground."

She was treated for bruises and lacerations and sent home.

The lift, with most of its 120 double chairs loaded, stopped, jerked and then began running backward down the hill, throwing people from as high as 30 feet into the snow below as it accelerated.

Eleven ambulances were sent to the scene and two helicopters were dispatched from Mountain Home Air Force Base, 120 miles away. Ambulances and private cars had removed all the seriously injured before the helicopters arrived.

A hospital spokesman said most of the injuries were broken bones. He said 40 doctors and hospital personnel from as far as 40 miles away rushed to the hospitals on snowpacked and icy roads.

Bullets Top Milwaukee; Win 88-87

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What's faster than a speeding Bullet?

The Milwaukee Bucks didn't have the answer Monday night and as a result, lost an 88-87 National Basketball Association decision to the Baltimore Bullets.

Mike Riordan sped through the Milwaukee defense and delivered a jump shot with 57 seconds left to provide the Bullets with their triumph.

Riordan scored 23 points overall as the Bullets beat the Bucks for the first time in 14 games. Milwaukee had taken Baltimore 13 straight times since Dec. 14, 1970.

The defeat, Milwaukee's second straight, cut the Bucks' lead in the Midwest Division to 2½ games over idle Chicago. The Bullets took a half-game advantage over Atlanta in the Central Division.

Raise Guidelines To Determine Poverty Levels

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department has raised the income guidelines used by the government to determine whether a person is poor.

The department announced Monday that the new levels are about $193 higher than last year's. The guidelines are used to determine eligibility for federal programs for the poor.

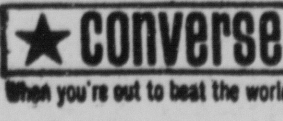

Under the new guidelines, a single person living in a nonfarm area of the continental United States is considered poor if he has a net income of less than $2,100 a year. The poverty level for a nonfarm family of four is $4,200.

The poverty level for persons living on a farm is $1,800 for a single person and $3,575 for a family of four.

UM Professor, Wife Killed In Collision

FLORENCE, Ky. (AP)—A tire blowout is believed to have caused a car-truck collision which claimed the lives of a University of Michigan associate professor and his wife, and left their five children hospitalized.

Alexander W. Allison, 53, and his wife, Nancy, 46, were killed Sunday when their car veered out of control on northbound Interstate 75 in northern Kentucky and into the path of a semi-trailer truck.

Kings Island Expansion To Cost Near $6 Million

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Less than one year after Kings Island began operations, the family-oriented amusement center is expanding.

Officials of the Taft Broadcasting Co. enterprise which stimulated Warren County's economy in 1972 said that $6 million is being spent to add a "gourmet restaurant" and three rides and "streamline the face of the park."

The expansion, which is supposed to be completed by opening of the park for weekends late in April, is currently providing work for "several hundred union construction personnel," a Kings Island official said.

The program will bring Taft's total investment in the park to about $36 million, and does not include costs of plans to open a drive-through wild animal preserve next to the park in 1974.

The restaurant is being erected on top of the entrance area to the park. It will cost about $1 million and be open to people even if they don't want to go into the park.

One of the three new rides will resemble a bobsled course and have speed up to 55 miles an hour.

In changing the "face of the park," workers among other things are replacing or altering about one-third of the landscaping, or about 100,000 plants.

But construction is not the only winter activity underway at the park. Kings Island officials are preparing auditions this month for hiring more than 200 high school and college students to participate in live shows at the park this summer.

The performers will be among more than 1,500 youths who will be hired this year. Most will come from the Southwestern Ohio area.

Park officials are already talking in terms of the park drawing nearly 2.5 million people in 1973.

PCAA Rejects Hangar Bids

The Pickaway County Airport Authority met Saturday to review bids on the 10-unit hangar building. The bids were opened Dec. 27.

Only two bids were received and both were rejected by the Authority. A bid by Fulfab, Inc. of Canton was rejected as it was received late and the bid of the C & I Building Company of Circleville was rejected for being over the estimate established by the Pickaway County Airport Authority.

A new bidding date is being set up by the Airport Authority.

PCAA Rejects Hangar Bids

The Pickaway County Airport Authority met Saturday to review bids on the 10-unit hangar building. The bids were opened Dec. 27.
Only two bids were received and both were rejected by the Authority. A bid by Fulfab, Inc. of Canton was rejected as it was received late and the bid of the C & I Building Company of Circleville was rejected for being over the estimate established by the Pickaway County Airport Authority.
A new bidding date is being set up by the Airport Authority.

Kings Island Expansion To Cost Near $6 Million

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Less than one year after Kings Island began operations, the family-oriented amusement center is expanding.
Officials of the Taft Broadcasting Co. enterprise which stimulated Warren County's economy in 1972 said that $6 million is being spent to add a "gourmet restaurant" and three rides and "streamline the face of the park."
The expansion, which is supposed to be completed by opening of the park for weekends late in April, is currently providing work for "several hundred union construction personnel," a Kings Island official said.
The program will bring Taft's total investment in the park to about $36 million, and does not include costs of plans to open a drive-through wild animal preserve next to the park in 1974.
The restaurant is being erected on top of the entrance area to the park. It will cost about $1 million and be open to people even if they don't want to go into the park.

One of the three new rides will resemble a bobsled course and have speed up to 55 miles an hour.
In changing the "face of the park," workers among other things are replacing or altering about one-third of the landscaping, or about 100,000 plants.
But construction is not the only winter activity underway at the park. Kings Island officials are preparing auditions this month for hiring more than 200 high school and college students to participate in live shows at the park this summer.
The performers will be among more than 1,500 youths who will be hired this year. Most will come from the Southwestern Ohio area.
Park officials are already talking in terms of the park drawing nearly 2.5 million people in 1973.

Nixon's Visit To China Tops 1972 Stories

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Nixon's visit to China last February has been voted the top news story of 1972 by editors and news directors of Associated Press member newspapers and radio and television stations.

Nixon called the seven-day visit 'the week that changed the world.' He conferred with Chairman Mao Tse-tung and Premier Chou En-Lai and broke a 22-year vacuum in Sino-American relations.

The other top news stories of the year selected in the AP poll were:

- 2 — The attempted assassination of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace as he campaigned for the presidency.
- 3 — Terror at the summer Olympics.
- 4 — President Nixon's reelection.
- 5 — Henry A. Kissinger and his mission to end the war.
- 6 — President Nixon's visit to Moscow and the signing of the strategic arms limitation agreement.
- 7 — Sen. Thomas Eagleton and the Democratic vice presidential candidacy.
- 8 — The Vietnam war.
- 9 — Flooding that killed hundreds in West Virginia, South Dakota, Pennsylvania and seven other states.
- 10 — Supreme Court ruling on capital punishment.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP) — Roxy Stinson Brast, who a half-century ago gave critical testimony about the Warren G. Harding administration to a U.S. Senate committee during the Teapot Dome Scandal, died Monday at home.

Mrs. Brast was 80 and had been ill for the past year.

She became the wife of Jess W. Smith in 1908. Smith later became bodyguard, doorman and political errand boy for Ohio's 'Mr. Republican,' Harry M. Daugherty.

Although their marriage lasted only a year they remained friends and when Daugherty went to Washington as attorney general in Harding's Cabinet, she learned of many of the wrongdoings from her former husband.

As the first of the scandals of the Harding administration because public, Smith was found shot to death on May 30, 1923. Officially the death was called suicide, but no autopsy was performed and Mrs. Brast maintained that her former husband had been murdered because of what he knew.

Mrs. Brast never talked to reporters or historians during her lifetime, but testified before the Senate about numerous happenings she said Smith told her about.

She told the Senate committee about clandestine exchanges of stock certificates and money, payoffs, secret meetings, places, wiretaps and the exchange of liquor during national prohibition.

She is survived by her second husband, Philip Brast.

Cincinnati Firemen Have 8 False Alarms

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati firemen were wondering whether some pranksters didn't have April Fool's day—April 1—confused with New Year's day.

The eight fire alarms they answered Monday were false alarms.

There are at least four million recreational vehicles for camping, leisure travel and other purposes on U.S. roads today, and the number may double by 1973, Arthur D. Little Inc., reports. With more than 800 companies producing such vehicles, the research-engineering firm adds, retail sales in 1971 exceeded $1.6 billion, an increase of 41 per cent over 1970.

It could be part of Rhodes' strategy to seek once again a seat in the U. S. Senate, the skeptics believe.

It is unlike Rhodes, they argue, to let his plans be known so far in advance. There can be no doubt that Rhodes still smarts from the 1970 primary defeat suffered in the Senate race with Robert Taft Jr.

He could erase the setback, in his own mind at least, by going to the Senate. He would have an excellent chance if U.S. Sen. William B. Saxbe decided not to run again, as he has threatened, or go instead for the governorship.

For months, several Ohio businessmen friendly to both Rhodes and Saxbe have been talking up Saxbe as a gubernatorial candidate to oppose Gov. John J. Gilligan in 1974.

Saxbe defeated Gilligan in 1968, after Gilligan had knocked off veteran U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche in a Democratic primary fight. Lausche then endorsed Saxbe for his seat.

Gov. John J. Gilligan and other state officials acted quickly on statements honoring Harry S. Truman when the 33rd President's death was announced.

Truman, said Gilligan, placed the well-being of the country ahead of everything else 'from his days in the army in World War I to his service in the Missouri legislature, to his years in the Senate of the United States and as vice president...'

Truman never served in the state legislature. He went directly from presiding judge of the Jackson County Court to the U.S. Senate, and then to the presidency.

Sen. Paul Gillmor, R-Tiffin, will be the new chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee although Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray, R-3 Piqua didn't announce his appointment along with the others.

The reason was simple, explains Gillmor.

"I didn't get my biographical information in fast enough to get a news release prepared at the same time," he said.

Each of the announcements was made in the form of a news release. Sen. Clara Weisenborn, R-Dayton, didn't like the one Gray prepared for her so she rewrote it.

Mrs. Weisenborn, who will become chairman of the Senate Education Committee, quoted Gray as saying 'she has the prescience (misspelled in the release) of a work horse, a stick-to-it attitude, the interest of a mother, and the know how of experience to tackle the job and get it done.'

There were other remarks about outstanding service and experience.

'Hell, Gray hasn't said that many words about everybody in the last two

She told the Senate committee about clandestine exchanges of stock certificates and money, payoffs, secret meetings, places, wiretaps and the exchange of liquor during national prohibition.

She is survived by her second husband, Philip Brast.

Cincinnati Firemen Have 8 False Alarms

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati firemen were wondering whether some pranksters didn't have April Fool's day—April 1—confused with New Year's day.

The eight fire alarms they answered Monday were false alarms.

There are at least four million recreational vehicles for camping, leisure travel and other purposes on U.S. roads today, and the number may double by 1973, Arthur D. Little Inc., reports. With more than 800 companies producing such vehicles, the research-engineering firm adds, retail sales in 1971 exceeded $1.6 billion, an increase of 41 per cent over 1970.

It could be part of Rhodes' strategy to seek once again a seat in the U. S. Senate, the skeptics believe. It is unlike Rhodes, they argue, to let his plans be known so far in advance. There can be no doubt that Rhodes still smarts from the 1970 primary defeat suffered in the Senate race with Robert Taft Jr.

He could erase the setback, in his own mind at least, by going to the Senate. He would have an excellent chance if U.S. Sen. William B. Saxbe decided not to run again, as he has threatened, or go instead for the governorship.

For months, several Ohio businessmen friendly to both Rhodes and Saxbe have been talking up Saxbe as a gubernatorial candidate to oppose Gov. John J. Gilligan in 1974.

Saxbe defeated Gilligan in 1968, after Gilligan had knocked off veteran U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche in a Democratic primary fight. Lausche then endorsed Saxbe for his seat.

Gov. John J. Gilligan and other state officials acted quickly on statements honoring Harry S. Truman when the 33rd President's death was announced.

Truman, said Gilligan, placed the well-being of the country ahead of everything else "from his days in the army in World War I to his service in the Missouri legislature, to his years in the Senate of the United States and as vice president..."

Truman never served in the state legislature. He went directly from presiding judge of the Jackson County Court to the U.S. Senate, and then to the presidency.

Sen. Paul Gillmor, R-Tiffin, will be the new chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee although Majority Leader Theodore M. Gray, R-3 Piqua didn't announce his appointment along with the others. The reason was simple, explains Gillmor.

"I didn't get my biographical information in fast enough to get a news release prepared at the same time," he said.

Each of the announcements was made in the form of a news release. Sen. Clara Weisenborn, R-Dayton, didn't like the one Gray prepared for her so she rewrote it.

Mrs. Weisenborn, who will become chairman of the Senate Education Committee, quoted Gray as saying "she has the prescience (misspelled in the release) of a work horse, a stick-to-it attitude, the interest of a mother, and the know how of experience to tackle the job and get it done."

There were other remarks about outstanding service and experience. "Hell, Gray hasn't said that many words about everybody in the last two years," a skeptic noted. Mrs. Weisenborn was undaunted. "I didn't write it," she smiled.

We honestly believe we have the lowest prescription prices in town. We invite you to compare our prices. Bring your next prescription in for pricing at no obligation.

Garage Burglar Takes Everything

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Whoever broke into Ray's Garage Thursday night did quite a job. Burglars took cash, cigars, a sander-buffer, an eight-track stereo and several hundred dollars worth of tools. The burglars also took along the watchdog—a Great Dane.

CARROLL RICHTER'S
HOROSCOPE
from the Carroll Richter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: During the day it is difficult for you to organize your affairs for the future, but later you find you can study them more objectively and get some answers that are just what you have been looking for. Wind up incomplete matters.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Show that you handle your activities intelligently and make big headway with the goodwill of higher-ups. Use wisdom in handling civic matters. Change tactics with mate and get better results.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Those new ideas you have need more study before putting into action, or you can get yourself in trouble through them. Contact out-of-towners for the data you require. Save time for one who needs your help.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You have responsibilities left over from last year that require your full attention right now so they are handled properly. Show more affection for mate and come to a better understanding, harmony.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Take care you do and say nothing that could start arguments with close ties, associates, any who mean much to your well-being. Although others do something you do not agree with, await a better time to talk it over with them.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Study well what your duties are and then roll up your sleeves and get right to work on them, put them behind you quickly. Take more of those health treatments that have been helpful in the past. Show you are a logical thinker.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Although you want to have fun, be sure to get into proven activities that bring real pleasure. Don't take risks where your devotions are concerned. Avoid one who likes to do too much.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Being more cheerful and kind with those who dwell with you brings about more harmony at home now. Do work that is necessary. Get rid of obsolete articles around you and replace with the new.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Plan your daily duties more efficiently so you have more spare time for other activities, pleasure. State clearly what your motives are with associates. Then you get the right kind of cooperation.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) If the financial side of your life is not going well, analyze where the trouble is and do something about it. Get information from an expert in business if you have any doubts about something. Help one who is ill.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Analyze whether you are making the right contacts, bringing the right interests into your life, otherwise make them now. Get into some new group gathering that can be just what you need. Avoid one who has a bad temper.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Closet yourself with an expert and put your affairs in better order instead of gadding about so gregariously. A good friend has a problem that you can help with, so do just that. A wise person gives good advice, too.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have a good friend who has fine ideas for you, but some of which are not good, so pick out the best and follow through on them. Not a very good day for social matters. Look into practical affairs more intelligently.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those young people who needs much cheering up early, since the attitude will be rather morose. Encouragement will also bring out the fine organizing ability latent in this chart, which can lead to big success in almost any field of endeavor. Take good care of the diet and teach to smile early. Give sports that are helpful. A slow starter here, but one who soon catches up and then goes ahead of others.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

NEW YORK (AP) — Now don't you feel silly about the way you carried on at midnight yesterday? Think about it.

Then reflect on the fact that there are 13 men in this town with clear minds and consciences. One is Guy Lombardo. The rest are in his Royal Canadian orchestra. They played "Auld Lang Syne" on the CBS Television network just as 1973 began, and not one drop of the demon rum had passed their lips.

In fact, they've not had a drop of any known spirits on New Year's Eve for all the 44 years they've played "Auld Lang Syne" over the airwaves.

I got this straight from the lead trumpet player in the band, Lebert Lombardo, 67, who is Guy's brother. The revelation came during band rehearsals last week at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

The question: Since nearly everyone on the dance floor gets smashed on New Year's Eve, doesn't the band feel sort of obliged to take a wee sip of the bubbly?

"Ohhh, no," Lebert said. And he was dead serious. "Oh, no. No, no. That's an unwritten law."

He pointed at a rookie saxophonist who, he said, had joined the band just 26 years ago.

"He has had more whiskey than we'll ever see," Lebert said. "But when he came into this band, nobody said anything. Nobody had to tell him anything."

"Guy didn't say there's no drinking on the job. He (the saxophonist) just looked around, looked at this guy and that guy. And they didn't drink, so he didn't drink."

"He got married and raised a family. He has a drink now and then, but never on the job. Never."

The mind boggles. Nobody in the band has even a small snort on New Year's Eve? "Not even a beer," Lebert said. "Not even a sip."

Guy Lombardo roared when asked a slightly different question: Do the people who do drink on New Year's Eve come up and demand to play with his clear-eyed band?

"They sure do," Guy laughed, and his eyes twinkled. "Yes, indeed, they sure do."

How does he deal with them, yet remain tactful? "Well, we try not to have a low stage," he said. "We have it high for that reason: so all the supporting drummers can't try to climb up on the stage."

"Everybody wants to play the drums on New Year's Eve."

Three District School Boards To Reorganize For 1973

Boards of Logan Elm, Circleville and Westfall Schools reorganized New Year's Day for the 1973 calendar year.

Reorganization meetings for the other two districts within Pickaway County have been scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday. The Teays Valley Board of Education plans its reorganizing session Wednesday and the Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Board is meeting at noon today.

Logan Elm school board re-elected its 1972 officers to serve in the coming year. Donald Bower remains as board president with Roger Hobbie as vice president.

Time and dates for the regular board meetings were set for the first Monday of each month, beginning 7:30 p.m. November through March, and 8 p.m. April through October.

Tentative appropriations for 1973 were not acted upon but will be decided at a meeting later this month.

Mrs. Jeanne Lett moved from the second officer's chair into the board presidency for Westfall. Named vice president was Cooke Metzger.

The third Monday of each month was retained as the meeting date of the board, all sessions slated for 8 p.m. in the high school conference room.

Westfall's board took other action at its initial 1973 meeting. It appointed David Long as board representative to the Westfall Athletic Board and passed a resolution to join the Ohio School Board Assn. for the 1973 year.

Board members issued a commendation to the Class of '72 of Westfall High for its contribution of remaining class funds to purchase a camera, enlarger and other darkroom equipment. The contribution was made by the class as a memorial to the late Donald Shearer, who served as superintendent of Westfall Schools before his death last spring.

A memorial plaque is to be placed on the entrance door to the darkroom.

Temporary appropriations for the year were estimated by the board at $1,383,360.90.

Circleville Board of Education voted to meet the fourth Tuesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. in 1973.

The board authorized the meeting date change from the second Tuesday date in effect previously.

There was no change in officers of the board. Members re-elected Dale Delong as president and voted Tom Elsea back into the vice-president's office.

For the year 1973, a general fund appropriation of $3,090,924 was approved.

Action was taken to re-appoint Forrest Brown to his seat on the joint vocational board, for a four year term from January, 1973 until December, 1976.

Prosecutor Presents 12 Cases To Grand Jury

Fifteen jurors were seated Tuesday morning as the January 1973 term of Common Pleas Court got underway.

The first day of business in the new year was set aside for grand jury, with Prosecutor Richard Gerhardt in charge.

Gerhardt offered an abbreviated list of cases—only 12—to the 15 member jury. The charges were filed against nine persons.

Foreman of the jury is Roger H. May. Other members are: Merle E. Swank, Carolyn H. McCoy, Florence Kempton, Anna Belle Lake, Ruthe M. Conley, Rosemary Ankrom, James

Peter McCoy, Edna Smith, Elvin R. Rowland, Martha E. Reid, Norman McKnight, Rinda White, Irene M. Dreisbach and David S. Cravin.

Nettles were imported into Britain by Roman soldiers who used the plant as protection against the cold winters. The legionnaires rubbed the stinging leaves on their shivering bodies to stimulate circulation.

Patrol Post Notes Year's Activities

An annual report of activities in 1972 for Highway Patrol Post 65 reveals officers made 13,465 arrests and investigated 1,647 accidents.

Inspections of motor vehicles totalled 71,670 with 40,296 of those failing because of one or more defects. Officers assisted 11,371 motorists in distress.

Arrests for drunk driving numbered 750 for 1972. Case investigations for the year were 201 and recovery of stolen property amounted to $64,943 in value. Registration fees collected totalled $6,455.50.

Special details, serving as guards at the Ohio State Fair, speaking at clubs and schools, and similar activities, were 900 in number.

And at the post itself, activity was great. Phone calls received alone totalled 23,254 and there were 2,878 persons on post this past year.

Three District School Boards To Reorganize For 1973

Boards of Logan Elm, Circleville and Westfall Schools reorganized New Year's Day for the 1973 calendar year.

Reorganization meetings for the other two districts within Pickaway County have been scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday. The Teays Valley Board of Education plans its reorganizing session Wednesday and the Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Board is meeting at noon today.

Logan Elm school board re-elected its 1972 officers to serve in the coming year. Donald Bower remains as board president with Roger Hobbie as vice president.

Prosecutor Presents 12 Cases To Grand Jury

Fifteen jurors were seated Tuesday morning as the January 1973 term of Common Pleas Court got underway.

The first day of business in the new year was set aside for grand jury, with Prosecutor Richard Gerhardt in charge.

Gerhardt offered an abbreviated list of cases—only 12—to the 15 member jury. The charges were filed against nine persons.

Foreman of the jury is Roger H. May. Other members are: Merle E. Swank, Carolyn H. McCoy, Florence Kempton, Anna Belle Lake, Ruthe M. Conley, Rosemary Ankrom, James

Time and dates for the regular board meetings were set for the first Monday of each month, beginning 7:30 p.m. November through March, and 8 p.m. April through October.

Tentative appropriations for 1973 were not acted upon but will be decided at a meeting later this month.

Mrs. Jeanne Lett moved from the second officer's chair into the board presidency for Westfall. Named vice president was Cooke Metzger.

The third Monday of each month was retained as the meeting date of the board, all sessions slated for 8 p.m. in the high school conference room.

Westfall's board took other action at its initial 1973 meeting. It appointed David Long as board representative to the Westfall Athletic Board and passed a resolution to join the Ohio School Board Assn. for the 1973 year.

Board members issued a commendation to the Class of '72 of Westfall High for its contribution of remaining class funds to purchase a camera, enlarger and other darkroom equipment. The contribution was made by the class as a memorial to the late Donald Shearer, who served as superintendent of Westfall Schools before his death last spring.

A memorial plaque is to be placed on the entrance door to the darkroom.

Temporary appropriations for the year were estimated by the board at $1,383,360.90.

Circleville Board of Education voted to meet the fourth Tuesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. in 1973.

The board authorized the meeting date change from the second Tuesday date in effect previously.

There was no change in officers of the board. Members re-elected Dale Delong as president and voted Tom Elsea back into the vice-president's office.

For the year 1973, a general fund appropriation of $3,090,924 was approved.

Action was taken to re-appoint Forrest Brown to his seat on the joint vocational board, for a four year term from January, 1973 until December, 1976.

Peter McCoy, Edna Smith, Elvin R. Rowland, Martha E. Reid, Norman McKnight, Rinda White, Irene M. Dreisbach and David S. Cravin.

Nettles were imported into Britain by Roman soldiers who used the plant as protection against the cold winters. The legionnaires rubbed the stinging leaves on their shivering bodies to stimulate circulation.

Patrol Post Notes Year's Activities

An annual report of activities in 1972 for Highway Patrol Post 65 reveals officers made 13,465 arrests and investigated 1,647 accidents.

Inspections of motor vehicles totalled 71,670 with 40,296 of those failing because of one or more defects. Officers assisted 11,371 motorists in distress.

Arrests for drunk driving numbered 750 for 1972. Case investigations for the year were 201 and recovery of stolen property amounted to $64,943 in value. Registration fees collected totalled $6,455.50.

Special details, serving as guards at the Ohio State Fair, speaking at clubs and schools, and similar activities, were 900 in number.

And at the post itself, activity was great. Phone calls received alone totalled 23,254 and there were 2,878 persons on post this past year.

Everything Kroger sells is

GUARANTEED UNCONDITIONALLY

When B.H. "Barney" Kroger opened his first grocery store nearly 90 years ago, he guaranteed the quality of everything he sold in his store. He knew that this was the best way he could win satisfied customers who would help his business grow.

In today's more complex marketplace, Kroger believes that our "replacement or money-back guarantee of total satisfaction" on everything we sell is more essential than ever.

We do our best to see that everything we sell is to your liking. But should you have a complaint about any product, we want you to let us know. You must be completely satisfied or Kroger will replace the product or refund your money.

There's an Unconditional Guarantee on everything sold at Kroger stores. It is one more way Kroger is trying to serve you better.
